Until We Meet Again

When we were little growing up, we all shared pieces of our childhood, you were the cousin I longed to spend time with the one who could always make us laugh and smile. You held a special place in my heart and together we created a book of beautiful memories.

My mind can still turn pages of that book and relive those days filled with popsicles, lazy days, and laughter. Moments in time that will forever be a part of me. Though you've left this earthly place, your memory fills an endless space. A cousin, a friend so true, in every heart we carry you. Your smile lives on in memories. Though time has come to say goodbye, in spirit you are forever nigh. In dreams, you visit, soft and bright, a guiding star in darkest night. Deep in our hearts, your life kept to love and cherish, not forget. No more tomorrows we can share but yesterday's are always there. A silent thought, a secret tear keeps your memory ever near in our hearts forever.

Cousins

Skylar,

In life we think we have time, but time is not always on our side. I pray that my actions showed just how much I loved you and how badly I wanted to see you win. I gave you what daddy gave me, which was the game. I thank God for the time he gave us to bond while we worked together. I won't question God nephew. Two mountains may never meet but two men will. We WILL meet again.

Love Always, Uncle D

Skylar Donahue was born on September 8, 2004, in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, to Frazer Henry Jr. and Ebony Donahue. Skylar was reared by his grandparents Iris Gail Donahue and Donald Wayne Robertson.
