

Her voice will echo
in the memories you hold,
Her smile will warm you
through stories retold;
Her love will touch you
in spirit each day.
Her life will be treasured
in beautiful ways.

Obituary

Jeanine Webb, age 64, of Hamilton, Ohio, went to walk the golden streets of Heaven on Thursday, July 23, 2026, at Mercy Hospital.

Jeanine was born on September 7, 1961, in Hamilton, Ohio, the daughter of Verna Woods and Gene Woods.

She was the loving mother of Kendra (Dave) Smallwood, Judy Webb, Paula Webb, Paul Webb, Tammy Webb, Shawnda (Marco) Wright, and Shawn (Kelley) Wright.

A caring Mamaw to Miranda Wooten, Kelsie, Lyndsay, Lonnie Paul, Trevor, Vivian, Amani, Mia, Omar, Jonah, David, Ryan, Jelly, Miley, Aubrey, Josh, Christian, Carson, Jacelynn, Eme, Tony, Anthony, Cody, Marcus, Antonio, Kylee, Aniyah, Isabelle.

Her great-grandchildren include Gracie, Kamilah, David, Kymora, and Laylecahna.

A devoted sister to Barb, David, Phillip, Maymay, Karen, and Wayne.

Jeanine loved nothing more than family being together and being there for anyone and everyone she could. She was always a joy to be around and could pick you up no matter how down you were. She enjoyed coffee and a good home-cooked meal, mostly if it was made by her favorite kid, "Bub." She was a very proud Mamaw to all her grandkids and great-grandkids. She loved music and cards in her later years. In her younger years, she enjoyed going out for a few drinks, partying, bingo halls, and old bar stools, where she made a lot of her memories.

She now resides in Heaven with the people she missed the most: her mother, father, Wayne, Karen, Tammy, Paula, Tony Lee, and the love of her life, Bill.

Jeanine's legacy lives on through her children, the Wright family; the father of her children, Shawn Wright; and friends Paula and Leonard Withrow.

May she never be forgotten and be at peace where there's no more pain in Gloryland. For on Earth, she loved a lot in her time.
