We are deeply thankful to all who traveled near and far, sent flowers, prepared meals, made phone calls, and offered support in so many meaningful ways. Every act of kindness has provided comfort and strength during this difficult time.

While our hearts grieve deeply, we find peace in the outpouring of love that surrounds us and in the cherished memories shared by all whose lives Mary touched. Her legacy of love, kindness, and faith will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Mary Louise (Reaves) Reeves was born on April 22, 1967, in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, the third daughter of Marion and Patricia Reaves. She was raised in a loving and devoted home, where the values of faith, compassion, and service became the foundation of her life.

From an early age, Mary possessed a warm spirit, a caring heart, and a smile that could brighten any room. She had a special gift for making others feel welcome and loved. Her life was defined not by the years she lived, but by the kindness she shared, the lives she touched, and the love she gave so freely.

On Friday, September 4, 2026, Mary peacefully departed this earthly life and entered her heavenly home. Though she is no longer with us in body, the love and memories she leaves behind will continue to live in the hearts of all who knew her.

Mary was a lifelong member of Anderson Baptist Church, where her faith journey began through service in the Junior Choir and Junior Usher Board. As she grew, so did her relationship with God. She remained a faithful servant, regularly attending prayer services and Bible study. Her faith was evident in the way she loved, served, and cared for others, always extending kindness, encouragement, and compassion to those around her.

A proud graduate of Berkeley High School's Class of 1985, Mary met Earnest Eaddy during her school years. The two were united in marriage in 1986, and from their union came four beloved children: Ahmad, Earnest, Kevin, and Schelmyra.

Motherhood was one of Mary's greatest joys. She devoted herself to loving, nurturing, and supporting her children through every stage of life. She celebrated their successes, prayed for them through life's challenges, and remained their constant source of love and encouragement.

Her family grew to include seven treasured grandchildren, who brought immense joy to her life. She delighted in their smiles, accomplishments, and unique personalities. Through her children and grandchildren, Mary leaves a legacy of love, strength, and faith that will continue for generations.

Mary's nurturing spirit extended beyond her family. She had a special love for children and found fulfillment in caring for them. She also worked in various retail and customer service positions, where she was known for her kindness, helpfulness, and genuine care for others. Whether assisting a customer or offering a kind word, Mary understood the power of making someone's day a little brighter.

Mary was preceded in death by her beloved son, Earnest Eaddy, Jr.; her stepmother, Mary "Libby" Reaves; and her grandparents, Louise and Oliver Reaves, Ethel Mae and Aaron Smalls, and Mattie and Leroy Singleton.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Ahmad Eaddy of Moncks Corner, South Carolina; Kevin Eaddy and Schelmyra Eaddy, both of Charlotte, North Carolina; and seven cherished grandchildren: Ahmani Johnson Eaddy, Lianee Eaddy, Christian Eaddy, Emiyah Eaddy, Chambers Eaddy, Malakhi Eaddy, and Blakelyn Eaddy.

She is also survived by her loving parents, Patricia Reaves and Marion Reaves of Moncks Corner, South Carolina; her sisters, Evangela (Kelvin) Myers of Goose Creek, South Carolina, Marionette Reaves of Monroe, North Carolina, and Takisha (Wilden "Shy") Davis of Chester, Pennsylvania.

Special acknowledgment is lovingly extended to Annie Mae Eaddy, Nicole Commander, and Queen Burgess for their love, kindness, and care shown to Mary.

Mary will also be lovingly remembered by her aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, church family, friends, and countless loved ones whose lives were enriched by her presence.
