Grandmother

She's the nicest kind of person you could ever hope to find.
And thoughts of her bring thoughts of special happiness to mind ...
She's someone who will listen and will always understand.
She's someone with a friendly word; a willing, helpful hand ...
She takes a special interest in everything you do.
She's the dearest person ever.
She's my grandmother ...
She's You.

Sister

You gave no one a last farewell, nor never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you, a million times we will cry.
In our hearts you hold a place, no one else can ever fill.
It broke out hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for parts of us went with you, the day God took you home.
We will meet again someday I know in a better place.
I thank God he made you MY SISTER while you were on earth.

Psalm 37:4

“Take delight in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart.”

Linda Fay Webster

Linda Fay Webster was born on May 6, 1950 to the late Hattie Mae Webster and Isaiah Webster in Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee. She received her education in Nashville, Tennessee and finished at Pearl High School. Linda accepted Christ at an early age and spent most of her life providing care to those in need.

She was preceded in death by her mother Hattie Mae Webster; fathers Isaiah Webster and Richard Napoleon Williams; grandfather Guy Ervin; sisters JoAnn Webster, Doris Jean Webster, Dorethea Witherspoon, and Paulette; brother Marvel Webster; and her son Larry Donnell Webster.

Tenderly known to her family and friends as “Yaya,” she loved those around her dearly. Yaya’s favorite pastimes included going to church, spending time with her grandchildren, taking walks outside, watching “Shrak,” and showing off her sense of fashion.

Linda went to her eternal home on December 17, 2025. She leaves to cherish her memory her faithful daughter Shetara Denise Webster; grandchildren Rachel Faulk, Leondre “Dre” Hathaway, Lyric Hathaway, Destiny Hathaway, and Nathan Jones; sisters Vickie Webster, Gloria Webster, Diane Webster, Deborah Webster, Sadie Lee, and Delores Fleming, niece Vanessa Crawford; great-nieces Ayanna Harris and Arianna Miller; and many other beloved family members and friends.

I’ve said many goodbyes – to friends, family, and love.

Each one hurt, and I’ve cried before. But this goodbye ...This one is different.

It’s the hardest, the heaviest. It has left me speechless, lost, empty in a way I never expected.

Crying was inevitable, but this hollowness – this feeling of losing a piece of myself – was not.

People come and go, filling spaces left behind. But this time, I didn’t just lose you.

I lost myself with you.
