

Life wasn't easy from boy to manhood so you lived your life.
The only way you could.
You'd often lose your way and fall through the cracks, but you being you would always pull yourself out and again you'd come back
I didn't get to be with you the way I wanted to, like hanging together doing things that father's and sons do.
But we talked on the phone and sometimes you'd even FaceTime me we laugh and cap on each other. You know how we'd be.
I was always glad to see you and you glad to see me never knowing when the next time would be.
Now you're gone and this time for good.
Leaving only memories of your love as I knew you would.
we'll be together again one day ,and when that day comes, I know you'll be standing there arms open waiting to welcome your son.
