OBITUARY

Mother Mamie Augusta Wallace Marshall was born on June 6, 1938 in Edwards, Mississippi; to George Wallace, Sr. and Demenia Wadley Wallace. She departed this life on Sunday, May 25, 2025, 1:45 pm, at Mississippi Baptist Medical Center, Jackson, Mississippi.

Mother Marshall accepted Christ at an early age, where she joined Pilgram Rest Missionary Baptist Church and then Chapel Hill Missionary Baptist Church. She joined the Heroines of Jericho and served on the Mother Board until she was called home to be with the Lord.

Mother Mamie had a full and loved life. She made it her mission to pull her family together every Sunday for Sunday dinner and cooked for them, until her health began to decline. Then, she commissioned her granddaughter Tracey Nicole to cook for everybody. Sometimes she would solicit help from the other children, but she said Tracey cooks just like her and that is what she wanted to happen. She loved cooking for her family. Mother Mamie made sure all her children were with her every Sunday and May 25, 2025 was no different. There was no Sunday dinner, but all of her children were there with her in her final hours.

Before her retirement, she worked for Hinds County Project Headstart. She told her children that she will not be getting any money, because she was too young to retire. They didn't mind that, because everyone assured her that she would not miss anything and she could stop working whenever she wanted to. She was also featured in a Woman to Woman Magazine in May, 2020 for being an outstanding mother.

Mother Marshall will be truly missed. She was preceded in death by her parents: George and Demenia Wallace, five brothers, Robert Eugene Wallace, Reverend Willie Ester Wallace, Melvin Wallace, George Wallace, Jr. and Reverend Bennie Wallace, as well as, three sisters, Bertha Mae Ragans, Carrie Hill and Louise Virginia (LV) Myrick.

She leaves to mourn her passing: Four children, Mary Ann Burns and De Ella Marshall, both of Bolton, MS; Floyd Marshall, Jr., Jackson, MS; Sophia Chapman (Fishon), Jackson, MS; her bonus daughter / granddaughter Tracey Nicole Marshall, her grandson / great-grandson and the apple of her eye, her heart as she would say her best friend Mykelti King, Edwards MS; and her baby sister Rosie D. Wallace Barber, Bolton, MS. She loved all of her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other relatives. She held a special place in her heart for her niece Mother Ada Jordan (W. C.), Bolton, MS, who would cook dinner for her from time to time.
