Madrigga

Fred was born Sunday, July 2, 1939 in his grandpa's house in The Pas, Manitoba to parents Andrew and Jennie Madrigga.

Fred attended school in The Pas graduating from grade twelve and over the years took agriculture courses on cattle and grain production to increase his farming knowledge. He belonged to past farming organizations such as the Manitoba Pool Elevators Local and was secretary for a local cattle producers Pasquia Grasslands Society.

Fred's long farming career started as a young boy helping his grandpa (Geda) and father on their Carrot Valley homestead farm started in the early 1920's. They still had a team of work horses and Fred said he had to stand on a stump when he helped bridle them.

By the time Fred grew old enough to take over the farm, horses had been replaced with tractors and other machinery. He continued on the mixed farm raising cattle and grain crops and diversified by raising sheep for many years. Fred had the carpentry skills to construct house additions and farm buildings and do any other house repairs. He also was able to weld and repair farm machinery.

Preserving the area's history and heritage was an interest of Fred's. For many years he was on the Sam Waller Museum Board and volunteered in the early days when it was known as Sam Waller's Little Northern Museum. He worked to have the court house and community building developed into a fitting place to display Sam's Collections and was honoured to be a lifetime museum member.

Fred was a dedicated active member of the Anglican Christ Church. He was on vestry for a long time and was a lay reader and performed other church duties as needed. He liked going out to social gatherings, visiting friends, doing crossword puzzles, reading, watching TV and traveling, both for a holiday, or on farm business.

Fred passed away Saturday, August 13, 2022, at St. Anthony's Hospital, The Pas, Manitoba, at the age of 83 years.

Fred is survived by his brothers David Madrigga, Andy (Barb) Madrigga; sisters Linda Herman, Jane Madrigga; niece Delores (Marc) Fouillard; nephew Kyle (Aileen) Herman; grandnieces Avril (Craig), Gabrielle, Robyn; grandnephews Justin, Jordan (Jessica); five great grandnieces and nephews and many other cousins and relatives too numerous to mention.

Fred will be sadly missed by his family, his good friend Eileen Martinson, as well as many other friends and acquaintances Fred enjoyed knowing over the years.

Fred was predeceased by his parents Andrew and Jennie Madrigga; brother-in-law David Herman; close aunt Nellie Chokan; cousin Sylvia Loe.
