Compassionate Service provided by Smithfield 20th Ward Relief Society

We have laughed, loved, and struggled some,
But through it all we had some fun.

We have tasted the bitter, but have known the sweet;
Being together has made life complete.

The years have come and the years have gone...
It has been life's struggles that have made us strong.

Don't be sorry for us in our fading years;
We await the call of our Savior dear.

In the sunset of life we have much to boast;
Families, friends, and a full life we love most.

We travel together through the veil of hope
To life everlasting as man and wife,
Eternally sealed with families forever
To love, to cherish, and part with never.

Kenneth
