

Sandra "Sandy" Kay (Dinwiddie) Butler was born on January 15, 1948 to Ancel Guy Dinwiddie and Leota "Louise" (Dudley) Dinwiddie in Niangua, Missouri and departed this life on August 19, 2024 at the age of 76.

Sandy was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Butler; her father, Ancel Dinwiddie; her mother, Louise Dinwiddie; one brother, Dennis Dinwiddie; one sister, Lanna Becraft; and one grandson, Kevin McCarty.

Sandy is survived by one daughter, Angela Martin of Springfield, Missouri; one son, William (Shellie) Bard; two stepsons, Wesley (Carmen) Butler and family, Matthew (Theresa) Butler and family; two grandsons, Derek (Brooke) McCarty of Georgia, James Mead of Springfield, Missouri; two brothers, John (Leota) Dinwiddie of Richland, Missouri, and Larry Dinwiddie of Jefferson City, Missouri; one sister, Anita Dinwiddie of Marshfield, Missouri; three great grandchildren, Corbin, Emmett and Amelia McCarty of Georgia; her beloved dog, "Bella"; and a host of nieces, nephews, along with other family members, and friends.

Sandy enjoyed making cross stitch quilts, and even won several trophies for the quilts. She donated to the Missouri Baptist Children's Home. She enjoyed going to shows in Branson, Missouri, going to the Senior Center where she made numerous friends and played cards and bingo throughout the day. She also enjoyed playing cards and board games with her family and friends and was always learning new games to teach her family. Sandy was an avid collector of owls, crosses, jewelry and clothes. She enjoyed going to church and studying her Bible and she often volunteered at church and helped when needed as long as her health permitted her to do so. She enjoyed watching westerns, listening to Elvis Presley music and loved to cook big meals on the holidays. Sandy was an outdoor person and remained active until she physically no longer could. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

In Loving Memory Sandy K. Butler

The Broken Chain

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.
