

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still.
You have never been forgotten,
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain
To walk and guide us through our lives
Until we meet again.

Obituary

AARON LINWOOD MCINTOSH

July 15, 1993 – May 6, 2026

Aaron Linwood McIntosh, affectionately known as “Baby Mac” was born on July 15, 1993, in Maryland to Linda Thomas Sollinger and James E. McIntosh, Sr. Aaron grew up in Columbia Maryland where he built lifelong friendships and memories. He graduated from Hammond High School and received his BA in Criminal Justice from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. After graduation, Aaron made his home in the Charlotte, North Carolina area, worked as an IT Recruiter, Logistics Analyst and local Bartender.

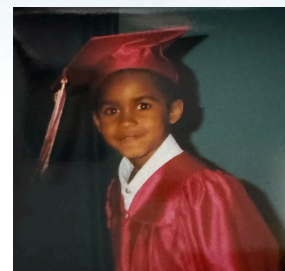

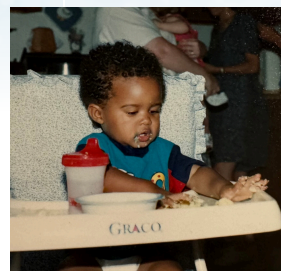

Aaron had a smile that could light up any room and a personality that brought comfort, joy and laughter to both loved ones and strangers alike. He had many passions in his life including motorcycles, soccer, and spending time with the people he loved most. Above all else, Aaron’s greatest accomplishment and deepest pride was becoming a father.

In October 2020, Aaron welcomed his beloved son, Ayden McIntosh, into the world. Aaron’s love for Ayden was immeasurable, and he dedicated himself wholeheartedly to being the best father he could be. The bond they shared was the center of Aaron’s world, and his legacy will forever live on through his son.

Aaron is survived by his cherished son Ayden McIntosh; loving mother Linda Thomas Sollinger; father James E. McIntosh Sr.; stepfather Chris Sollinger; half-siblings James E. McIntosh Jr. and Milan McIntosh; devoted grandparents Skip and Merle Thomas; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends. Aaron was preceded in death by his beloved Aunt Karen White.

Though Aaron’s life was far too short, the love he shared and the light he brought to the world will never be forgotten. His memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all that knew him.

Rest in peace dear Aaron. You left an indelible mark on our hearts and you are profoundly missed.
