Obituary

Robert Nathan Peeples was born on May 28, 1960, in Brooklyn, New York, to Delores Columbus Peeples. As an only child, Robert later moved to Savannah, Georgia, where he was raised by his beloved grandmother, Carrie Bell Peeples and his Aunt Marie Peeples, along with his cousins Delores Peeples and Brenda Peeples, who he considered to be his sisters. He was a proud resident of the Woodsville neighborhood, a place that always felt like home.

Robert graduated as a Wolverine from Tompkins High School in 1978. During his high school years, he met Angela Thomas, the mother of his children. That same year, Robert became a proud father of a baby girl named Stephanie Thomas, followed by another daughter, Latosha Thomas the following year.

In 1980, Robert moved to Detroit, Michigan, where he briefly served in the United States Air Force. After eight years in Detroit, he returned to Savannah, where he reunited with Angela Thomas and his three beautiful daughters Stephanie, Latosha and Angel Thomas. On April 1, 1990, they united in marriage, and together they welcomed a son, Robert Peeples Jr. and another baby girl named Cortney Peeples.

In 1998, Robert made the decision to return to Detroit in pursuit of better opportunities. Prior to his departure, he began what would become a lifelong career as a car salesman starting at Karp Motors. Robert worked as a car salesman for over 30 years—a profession he took great pride in and truly loved.

Robert is preceded in death by his grandmother, Carrie Bell Peeples; the mother of his children, Angela Peeples; his great grandson, Jesiah Williams; and his cousin, Tremell Peeples.

He is survived by his children, Stephanie Thomas (Antonio), Latosha Thomas (Kevin), Angel Thomas (Andre), Robert Peeples Jr, and Cortney Peeples (Ali); his grandchildren, NaShay Howard (Jabari), Alaysia Ross, Amiya Thomas, Aniyla Keye, Andre Keye Jr, Marques Baptiste, Jr., Amyr Nixon, Wahli Nixon, and Peony Nixon; great grandchildren, JeZaiya Williams, ZaKyrus Williams, Aysen Howard, Jivonni Thomas and A'ziya Blackwell; his best friends, Glen Young and Rose Smith; a dear brother, Harry Roberts; and a host of other family members and friends.

From Your Children

Ever since we were younger, our father had always instilled in us to be respectful, not only to ourselves, but also to others. He taught us the value of maintaining excellent credit and being true to our word. He wanted us to always know our self-worth. No matter our age in life, every moment was a teachable moment for Dad. No matter what we did or said, he always wanted to show or tell us how we could have done it Better. (LOL) Our father taught us so many life lessons that we will carry with us Always. Our father wasn't raised with a father figure in his life, but that did not stop him from becoming THE BEST FATHER EVER!! His presence will be deeply missed by us all.

Until We Meet Again

*Dad, you leave behind a legacy.
Your words of Wisdom will continue to live on through your children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.
You will truly be missed.*
