Solomon Colomb passed away suddenly on Friday, May 10, 2024, at his home with his sons beside him, at the age of 65 years.

Survived by spouse Verna Colomb; his children Aaron, Shannon and Shadow; grandchildren Vernita, Vayla, Vallea, Valo, Little Aaron, Vayne, Vaylynn; and one special great grandchild that he was honored to have, Deklan Star.

Solomon was born Thursday, February 26, 1959 in The Pas, Manitoba. He had many talents: art, log home building, music and storytelling. His younger days he had created a music band for Pukatawagan Community Hall where people would come to dance and to enjoy a peaceful gathering. He then moved on to form another band called The Shadows and travelled across Turtle Island, meeting so many people and making many friends with his presence. Legacy of Solomon of music and art will live on by his children Aaron, Shannon and Shadow, for they were given the talents of Solomon during their time on mother earth together.

Solomon loved to travel with his van to meet his friends and family all over the north. He was always right there to help friends and family wherever he showed up. He did all he could to be with family and especially his children.

Solomon is also survived by his brothers William, Paul, Edward, Joseph; sisters Mary Ann (Dan), Melanie; traditionally adopted family who he grew up in Prairie River, Mary Ann Bighetty, Solomon and family, Simeon and family, Louie Bighetty; Solomon Colomb's family from Split Lake to name a few. Solomon was predeceased by his parents Joseph B. Colomb and Isabelle (Dumas) Colomb; brother Eli; sisters Margaret, Louisa; adopted parents, Alphonse and Isabelle Bighetty; His mother and father in-law Emile and Marie (Ballantyne) Sinclair; nephew Kashtin; niece Jayda; sisters-in-law Maggie Ann, Maggie, Emily; brother-in-law Raymond Beardy; and many family and friends too numerous to mention.
