In Loving Memory

Peggy Sue Butler

December 18, 1958 - September 5, 2026

Peggy Sue Butler, 67, of Willard, Utah, passed away peacefully at her home on September 5, 2026.

Peggy was born December 18, 1958, in Santa Barbara, California, to Raymond Martin Sheehan and Norma Kay Pierce. She married James Leon "Jim" Butler on November 7, 1986. Peggy devoted her life to being Jim's wife and building a life alongside him. Through all of life's ups and downs, they shared a home, raised their family, and built a lifetime of memories together. Jim, their children, and their grandchildren were the center of Peggy's world.

Peggy was a devoted mother to her five children, Colby, Shaun, Terran, Jamie, and Kathalene. She loved fiercely, worried about everyone, and would do just about anything to make sure her family was taken care of.

One of Peggy's greatest joys was being Grandma. Her grandbabies—Wyatt, Braelynn, Shelbie, Riley, Aliyah, Dakota, Aubrey, Lilyona "Lily," Raina, and Brockten—meant the absolute world to her. More than anything, she loved spending time with them, watching them grow, making memories, and simply having them around. Each of them had their own special place in Grandma's heart.

Peggy loved the outdoors and wasn't afraid of a little adventure. She loved riding horses, fishing, hunting, going to the dunes, and snowmobiling. Some of the best memories with Peggy were made outside, getting dirty, going for a ride, or simply enjoying life with her family beside her.

Peggy had an incredibly giving heart and was always putting others before herself. She spent her life taking care of everybody around her—family, friends, and even people who simply needed somewhere to turn. She gave freely of her time, her home, and whatever she had. She was always willing to give a little more, help a little longer, and make room for someone who needed her. That was simply who Peggy was. Her door and her heart were always open, and if somebody needed help, Mom found a way.

Peggy is survived by her loving husband, James Leon "Jim" Butler; her children, Colby, Shaun, Terran, Jamie, and Kathalene; her beloved grandchildren, Wyatt, Braelynn, Shelbie, Riley, Aliyah, Dakota, Aubrey, Lilyona "Lily," Raina, and Brockten; her sister, Darlene; and many other family members and friends whose lives she touched.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond Martin Sheehan and Norma Kay Pierce, and her brother, Ronald Keith "Sonny" Sheehan.

We find comfort imagining that when Momma left this life, Grandpa and Sonny were already waiting for her on their dirt bikes, ready to take her riding again.

Peggy leaves behind so much more than memories. She leaves behind a family shaped by her love, her generosity, her strength, and the countless ways she cared for everyone around her. There will never be another Mom or Grandma quite like her.

Her family was her world, and she is the heart of theirs.
