In Loving Memory

Phone calls filled with laughter and cheer,
Our bond was strong, our hearts sincere.

Your stylish hats, that classic flair,
A touch of grace beyond compare.

Though you've gone, you're never far,
Your spirit shines like the evening star.

Rest peacefully, dear uncle of mine,
Your kindness and love will always shine.

Your Niece Greta

REFLECTION OF HIS Life

FRANK BURDEN SR.

Frank Burden Sr. was born in Hopkins, South Carolina, on April 6, 1948, to the late Mrs. Wilhemina Benson Burden and Mr. William Burden Sr. He departed this life on Wednesday, October 22, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. He was educated in the Richland County School System. He was formerly employed as the Maintenance Supervisor at Palmetto Terrace Apartments in Columbia, SC., and Johnson Food Service at Fort Jackson. Frank was known for his kind heart, loving spirit, and witty sense of humor. His smile could brighten any room, and his laughter brought comfort and joy to everyone who knew him.

Frank had a quick wit that could lift anyone's mood and a way of finding humor even in tough times. He was thoughtful, dependable, and always willing to lend a helping hand. His kindness, generosity, and lighthearted nature left a lasting impression on all who crossed his path. He enjoyed spending time with his family and watching football. His favorite team was the San Francisco 49ers, and he loved hats.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Wilhemina Burden, father, Mr. William Burden Sr. sister, Mrs. Eva Mae Benson Gadsden, four brothers Mr. William Burden Jr., Mr. Haynes Benson, Mr. Lewis Burden, and Mr. Henry Anderson, stepson Mr. Damien Miller.

He is survived by his children; Mr. Marcus Riley of Columbia, SC., and Mr. Frank (Nichelle) Burden Jr. of Atlanta, GA., sister Mrs. Annie (Lawrence) Sutton, brother, Mr. James Grant Jr. of Charlotte, North Carolina, along with a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces nephews, and his bonus family, Mr. Mike (Annette) Robertson and bonus grandchildren. Everyone will miss him dearly and cherish the precious memories he left behind.
