~Words of Appreciation~

If we had ten thousand tongues, we could not thank you enough for all the prayers, love and kindness to us during our time of bereavement. Whatever you did, big or small it was greatly appreciated. May God richly bless each of you.

Life Reflections

“There are many things in life we cannot understand, but we must trust God and be guided by his hand. All who have God’s Blessings can rest safely in His care, for He promises safe passage on the wings of faith and prayers...”

Geneva Hardy Singleton, the daughter of the late Nathaniel Hardy and Manie Pinckney Hardy was born on March 30, 1936 in Sumter County. She departed this earthly life on Tuesday, May 19, 2026 at her home in Wedgefield, South Carolina.

Geneva was educated in the public schools of Sumter County. At an early age, she received Christ as her personal Savior and joined Wayman Chapel A.M.E. Church.

Geneva was married to the late Mr. Edward Singleton. She was a devoted wife and loving mother, who possessed a very pleasant personality.

Geneva enjoyed family gatherings and working in her flower garden. She liked sewing and making her little small pillows. She enjoyed sitting on the porch, while listening to her music. She loved her family, especially her nieces and nephews, whom she loved and cared for like her own children.

Geneva loved the Lord with all her heart and found joy in her church family. She loved her Church and attended regularly until her health failed recently.

Geneva leaves to cherish her fond memories, one son, Ross Hardy of the home, one daughter, Pamala (Floyd) Wright of Charleston, S.C. Two grands, Xzavier Hardy of Charleston S.C., and Nakeya Hardy of Sumter, S.C., Two great -grands, La’Lani and Ariyanna Hardy of Sumter, S.C. One brother, Calvin (Joesphine) Hardy of Wedgefield, S.C. Two sisters: Evola Gilbert of Wedgefield, S.C., and Katherine (Perry) James of Sumter. Three stepdaughters; Wilhelmina Anderson, Earline Shannon and Louise Smith all of Sumter, S.C., and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

Geneva was preceded in death by her parents, three sisters: Mary Maine, Margaret Maple and Lizanna Witherspoon. Six brother: Nathaniel Jr., Edward, Walter, Allen, Freedy Allen and Willie Hardy Jr.

Our Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, In death we will do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.

For part of us went with you, The day God called you home.

You left us wonderful memories, your love and strength will be our guide.

And thou we cannot see you, you will always be at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same.

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
