

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

While processing to the cemetery, please be sure to turn on your lights and hazards!

Rae Leafly

Gayline "Rae" Leafly, 80, of Sedalia, MO, passed away peacefully on October 16, 2024. Born on August 25, 1944, in Montpelier, ID, she was the beloved daughter of Leo and Leona (Robison) Weaver, who preceded her in death.

On May 12, 1966, Rae married George David Leafly in Salt Lake City, UT. Together they built a life filled with love and devotion until his passing on November 8, 2011.

A devoted member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Rae actively participated in her faith community. She served on a Family History Service Mission in Salt Lake City and completed three missions in Sedalia, where she was currently serving. Rae cherished her time spent at various LDS Temples and was deeply committed to her church.

Above all, Rae was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. Her warmth and kindness touched the lives of everyone she met, and she will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Rae is survived by her children: Corey Leafly of Lava Hot Springs, ID; Carla Leafly of Santa Rosa, CA; Cordell Leafly (Stefanie) of Sedalia; and Marc Leafly (Courtney) of Hampton, VA. She was a proud grandmother to five grandchildren Korben, Julieah, Jaydyn, Kenzer, and Kaleb - and a cherished great-grandmother to Kimberlyn. She also leaves behind her brothers, Gary Weaver (Sandy) of South Weber, UT, and Ron Weaver (Sharon) of Pocatello, ID, along with many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Rae was preceded in death by her husband, parents, a brother, Warren Weaver, and a sister-in-law, Diane Weaver.
