

Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning, tears are for the sad.

Don't waste your hours in grieving, there's no need to feel distress.

I'm tired of life frustrations, and I had to get some rest.

Don't vex yourself with questions, or try to reason why,

Life, for me here, has ended; it came my time to die.

Don't lose the love I gave you; feed it with your care.

Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving, came in such a way.

We'll have another meeting, in God's eternal day.

KELLIE D. COFFER

NOVEMBER 3, 1983 - MARCH 17, 2026

Kellie D. Coffey, of Youngstown, Ohio, passed away on March 17, 2026, at the age of 42.

Born on November 3, 1983, to his loving mother, Linda Coffey, Kellie was a man whose presence never went unnoticed. He had a way of walking into a room and instantly lifting the energy. His smile, humor, and spirit made people feel at ease. Above all, Kellie was a devoted father and family man. His children were his world, and some of his happiest moments were spent simply being with them and those he loved. He had a natural gift for storytelling and always had a story to tell, often leaving everyone around him laughing or thinking long after the conversation ended.

He was known for being funny, loyal, caring, and giving. He was a true realist who kept it honest and real with everyone he met. Kellie was strong in ways that inspired others, and his kindness left a lasting impression. He brightened every room he entered and made people feel seen, heard, and valued.

A proud fan of the Green Bay Packers, Kellie enjoyed the simple things in life: family, laughter, and meaningful connections. He lived in a way that reminded others to appreciate those moments.

Kellie was deeply loved and will be greatly missed. Though he is no longer with us, the love he gave and the memories he created will live on through his children, his family, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and strength that will never be forgotten.

He is survived by his children, Kellie Coffey Jr., Qondie Coffey, Ke'Asia Coffey, Keshon Coffey, Karter Coffey, Kristina Coffey, Kristian Coffey, and Kaiden Coffey; his loving mother, Linda Coffey; his grandmother, Julia Coffey; his sisters, Markea Coffey Schencker (Leonard Schencker), Dionne Coffey, and Sussey Coffey; and his brothers, Darnell Coffey, Eric Coffey, and Albert Coffey.
