Acknowledgement

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel toward all of our friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, love, presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, emails, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God's love expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts, the members of our entire family thank you so very much. May God bless each of you.

The Obituary

Mrs. Inez Henderson Johnson began her earthly journey on January 3, 1951, in Pinehurst, Georgia, born to the loving union of the late Mr. Oscar Henderson, Sr. and the late Mrs. Ollie Mae West Henderson.

Educated in the Dooly County School System, Inez graduated with pride from Vienna High Industrial School with the Class of 1968, remaining an active, dedicated member of her class reunion committee throughout the years.

Guided by a calling to heal and comfort others, she pursued a lifelong career in healthcare. She earned her Practical Nursing diploma from Albany Technical College and continued her academic journey at Georgia Southwestern University, where she attained her Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN). For decades, Nurse Johnson served her community with quiet dignity, skill, and boundless compassion, dedicating years of faithful service to Pinehill Nursing Center in Byromville, Georgia, and Crisp Regional Health Services.

At an early age, Inez confessed Christ as her personal Savior and united with Friendship Baptist Church in Dooly County, Georgia. Later in life, her spiritual journey led her to unite with Ark of God Ministries in Cordele, Georgia, where she worshipped faithfully and remained steadfast in her walk of faith.

Inez was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Henry Johnson. While she did not have biological children of her own, her maternal love knew no bounds. She poured her heart into raising her nieces, Kelly and Mona Lisa, nurturing and loving them as her very own daughters.

Throughout her life, Inez was devoted to caring for her mother and father, honoring them with deep reverence and steadfast attention. Among her siblings, she was affectionately known as "Sistermean"—an endearing moniker earned because she truly didn't play when it came to protecting and looking after her brothers and sisters. Inez found joy in shopping, attending church fellowships, preparing delicious meals for those she loved, and gathering with family and friends.

On Tuesday, September 29, 2026, the Lord called His faithful servant home to eternal rest. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Oscar Henderson, Sr. and Ollie Mae West Henderson; her husband, Henry Johnson; and her siblings, Ollie Henderson and Walter Henderson.

Her rich legacy of love, strength, and devotion will forever be cherished by: her children: Pernell Johnson (Alicia) of Savannah, Georgia, Kelly Henderson and Mona Lisa Henderson, both of Albany, Georgia, and Felecia Shaw of Phoenix, Arizona; her sisters: Eliza Douglas (Paul) of Warner Robins, Georgia; Betty Henderson of Albany, Georgia; and Jackie Stuart of California; her brother: Oscar Henderson, Jr. (Patricia) of Augusta, Georgia; her aunts and uncle: David Henderson, Sr. of Atlanta, Georgia, Merdie Kinchens of Miami, Florida, and Dorothy Owens of Atlanta, Georgia; a sister-in-law, Desiree Henderson; a special cousin: Yvette Ross; her special friends: Madge Outlaw, Mary Williams and Maggie Sutton; a host of loving and caring nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, former colleagues, and sorrowing friends.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one; I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways Of happy times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun, of happy memories that I leave when my life is done.
