ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of the late Lizzie Owens McDowell would like to thank all of our friends for any and all acts of kindness shown to us during the loss of our dear loved one. Your cards, flowers, food and visits were greatly appreciated. We saw all of these things as God expressing his love for us through you. We thank you so much for whatever you did to console our hearts.

The McDowell Family

A SILENT TEAR

*Just close your eyes and you will see, all the memories that you have of me.
Just sit and relax and you will find, I'm really still there inside your mind.
Don't cry for me now, I'm gone, for I am in the land of song.
There is no pain, there is no fear, so dry away that silent tear.
Don't think of me in the dark and cold, for here I am, no longer old.
I'm in that place that's filled with love, known to you all, as "up above."*

Her Story

On May 10, 1948, Lizzie McDowell was born to the late Hamp & Rosa Lee Owens. Lizzie grew with her siblings, Bertha Owens, Will Owens, King Albert Owens, Savannah Owens Powell, Ethel Owens (all who preceded her in death) Rosa Mae Owens Searcy, Jessie Owens, & Bobbie J. Owens.

Lizzie attended Ruth Carter High School and graduated in 1968. She was a striving, hardworking individual and continued on to the sewing industry where she worked approximately 16 years at the Playtex Sewing Company in Manchester, Georgia until it ended business.

Lizzie always found joy in sewing and the industry. After the Playtex Company closed, she sought employment at the William Carter Company (a sewing company) in Thomaston, Georgia.

She met and married a military vet, Allen McDowell of Shiloh, GA. She gave birth to two children, Andre McDowell & Yolanda McDowell. She truly loved her family and worshipping the Lord. She joined the Flint River Baptist church in Woodland, Georgia in her early years & remained a member for many decades.

Lizzie continued on serving God and joined the Concord Baptist Church in Woodland, Georgia, where she remained a member until the Lord called her home.

She leaves behind a son & daughter (Andre and Yolanda); a loving husband (Mr. Allen McDowell); two grandchildren (Aundrea and Brittany); two great grandchildren: Kehlani, Teyana. Two sisters: Rosa Searcy and Bobbie Owens; one brother (Jessie Owens); five sister in-laws, Gussie Owens, Ella Owens, Liza Ann Waller, Marynell (Clifford) Partridge, Louvonia (Earnest) Simpson, Marilyn (Earl) Griffin, Linda Walker and Brenda McDowell and several nieces, nephews, cousins, & friends that loved her dearly.

Grandma

Thank you for all the beautiful memories you gave your great-grandchildren, Brittany and myself. Thank you for your sacrifices, your care and concern, your love and everything that you done for us. I know you're in a better place and I will forever be grateful and thankful that you are my grandmother.

Love

Andrea
