

In Loving Memory Of Jacques Janvier Sr

September 3, 1949 - March 19, 2024

Services:

Saturday, April 13, 2024 at 11AM

Davis Funeral Home

89 Walnut Ave

Roxbury, MA 02119

INTERMENT

Oak Lawn Cemetery

427 Cummins Highway

Roslindale, MA 02131

Repass To Follow

Order Of Funeral Service

Opening Prayer/Welcome

Jamilah Janvier (Daughter)

Solo Song

Sandra Verneus (Family Friend) - Don't Cry For Me

Scripture Reading

1st Lesson Psalm 90 (1-12)

Damion Sinclair (Nephew-in-Law)

Group Song

(We Would Like Everyone To Join In)

Break Every Chain - By Tasha Cobbs

Scripture Reading

2nd Lesson 1st Corinthians 15 (50-58)

Carol Johnson (Neice-In-Law)

Tributes

Eulogy

Jamilah Janvier (Daughter)

Sermon

Bishop Nicholas Homicil

Recession Song

Sandra Verneus (Family Friend) - I Am Free

Obituary

Jacques "Jacquot" Janvier Sr. was born on September 3, 1949 in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti, and passed away March 19, 2024 in Boston, MA. He migrated to America in his 30s, but had this profound love for his country and continued to faithfully visit back and forth between America and Jacmel, Haiti over the years that followed. He is survived by his wife of 31 years, Carol Janvier. He has 5 children: D'Jeny, Johane, Camille, Jamilah, Jacques Jr. 3 grandchildren: Bianka, Luke, Grace and 1 great-granchild Rashawn. Family and friends. He was a beloved father, grandfather, uncle, cousin, nephew and friend. He proudly served the City of Boston for over 30 years as a dedicated public school bus driver. Sadly missed, but never forgotten, and forever loved.

Pallbearers

Jacques Janvier Jr.

Damion Sinclair

Davon Robinson

Rashane Doyle

At The Graveside Song

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound, and time shall be no more

