

Norman Dale Williams Jr was born on July 1, 1972, to Norman and Carol (Blizzard) Williams in St Joseph, MO. He grew up and attended school in St Joseph and graduated from Elwood, KS, with a class of 13 students. During his younger years, he enjoyed bicycling and skateboarding with his friends. He also enjoyed fishing with his dad. On June 3, 2000, Norm married his soulmate, Shelly Hills, at St John's Catholic Church in Wahpeton, ND. The couple made their home in Wahpeton, where they raised their family. They enjoyed taking their yearly trips to Missouri to visit family. Norm started at Primewood/Quanex in 1996 and continued his employment there for 30 years.

Norm had a passion for motorcycles, which began in 1996. He had a few different bikes throughout the years until he got his Harley-Davidson Softail Slim in 2021. He loved taking Shelly and his kids on rides. He also enjoyed riding to Jersey Mike's with his close friend Josh.

Norm and his daughter Madison spent time together watching black-and-white movies. Norm and his son Connor bonded over collecting Hot Wheels together. Date nights with Shelly were always a favorite too. His hobbies also included collecting old coins. The newest was magnet fishing.

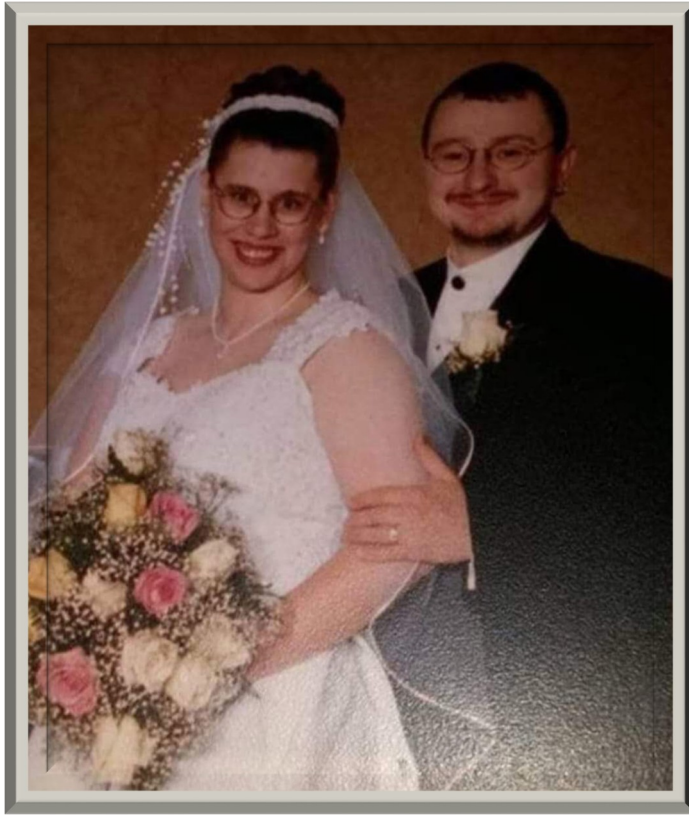

Norm is survived by his wife, Shelly Williams; his children, Connor Williams and Madison Williams; his granddaughter, Everleigh Walker-Williams; his siblings Candice Painter, Lisa Moser, Bart Painter, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Norman and Carol Williams; his siblings, Sherry Painter, Shannon Williams, Richard Painter; and his father-in-law, Jerry Hills.

IN MEMORY

*As we gather here today to pay tribute to a loved one and friend,
Let us remember and hold in memory,
and cherish those moments that each of us shared in some way
with our departed one.*

*Let us join hands and hearts
together in this service so that it may lend comfort and solace to the family and serve as an inspiration
to all of us in the months and years ahead.
“And so now I give a new commandment to you—
love each other just as I love you.”*
