'Forever in our hearts'

To my Grandad,

If I could give you one thing in life, I would have given you the ability to see yourself through my eyes. Only then would you have realized how special you were to me. I am so GRATEFUL for all that you were and all that you did, the love you gave and the laughter we shared and for letting me know that you would always be there. I am so BLESSED to have had a GRANDAD like you. I will always LOVE YOU and keep your memory alive.

Your great-grandson, Dante II

The family of Arthur Edward Lee, Sr. would like to express their sincere gratitude for all your love, support and acts of kindness during our time of bereavement.

Obituary

On October 1, 2023, God called Arthur Edward Lee, Sr. home after a lengthy battle with his health. He was born on December 31, 1940, to the late Dorothea Lee in Baltimore MD.

He was affectionately called "DC" or Mr. Arthur. He was the youngest of three children and baptized at an early age. Both his brother Donald and sister Miriam preceded him in death.

He received his education in the Baltimore Public School System. He met and married Victoria Bond. From that union they were blessed with three children: Darryl who precede him in death, Darlene, and Arthur Jr.

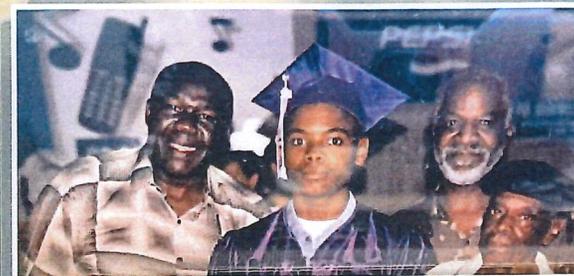

He worked for General Electric for many years before retirement. Afterwards he continued his passion as an IT Tech. He loved building computers and hard drives for family and friends. You may have had to wait a few weeks, but he was honoured to fix them.

Arthur was known for watching all sort of sports. Sports was one of his favorite past times. He loved tennis, racquetball and of course baseball in which he played with various leagues. He instilled the love of sports in his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. He enjoyed attending all their games at different locations to support them and had a special place in his heart for his two godchildren Diane Porter and Tonya Jessup.

DC loved being on the water. He would take fishing trips with his brother Donald and nephew Eric. He would then come home, clean and cook his... "catch of the day."

Arthur took great pleasure in taking long walks at the local high school in his community. This was his medication time for "health and thinking."

Arthur leaves to continue to enjoy life, his daughter Darlene, and his son Arthur Jr. (Valerie). His five grandsons, Dante (Destini), Davon, Quentin, Arthur III, and Armour. His twelve great grandchildren (whom he loved connecting and enjoying good times with). Helestine ("his Boo") Belton. And host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Dad,

I could shed tears that you are gone or smile because you lived.

I can close my eyes and pray you would come back or I could open my eyes and see all that you have left.

My heart could be empty because I can't talk to you Dad, or I could fill my heart with the love we shared.

I could turn my back on tomorrow and live for yesterday or I could be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

I could cry and close my mind, be empty and turn my back or do what you would have wanted me to do, that is to smile and continue to live with loving memories of you.

Your daughter, Darlene

Dad,

How lucky am I to have had you as my father. You brought so much joy whenever we shared special times together. I salute you; I honor you for an infinite number of reasons; I celebrate you and am thankful for so much more than I can express with these words. I'm happy to know that you are at peace now. You may not be with me anymore, but my love for you will never die.

You were a legacy and a gift to me to share with my family. Life will never be the same without you... Remember Dads are: ---a son's first hero ---a daughter's first love.

Love always,

Your son, Arthur Jr (Artie)
