HIS STORY

David Glenn Jones was born January 3, 1950, to the late Dorothy Jean Jones (White) and John Elmer Crutchfield in Cincinnati, Ohio.

David attended William Howard Taft Elementary School and Cutter High School. He later continued his education at Job Corps Trade School, where he studied carpentry and welding. David also worked for General Motors, where he built a career and provided for his family.

David was blessed with two brothers, John Timothy Jones and Anthony Moses Johnson. Family was an important part of David's life, and he treasured the time he shared with those he loved.

David was preceded in death by his beloved parents and his brother, Anthony Moses Johnson.

David leaves to cherish his memory his brother, John Timothy Jones, and Michelle; his six children, Fred, Kimberly, Donitha, Arnita, David Jr., and Dorothy; and his 13 grandchildren, Frederic, Erica, Latonya, Tyler, Ta'Shay, Tiffany, Joylynn, Arthur, Diana, Dai'ja, Antania, Mikiah, and Ethan. He also leaves behind 16 great-grandchildren, along with a host of nieces, nephews.

"I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

— JOHN 11:25-26
