23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

With heavy hearts and loving memories, we announce the passing of Lonzell Wyatt, who departed this life on July, 17, 2026, at the age of 82. Born on July 7, 1944, Lonzell lived a life marked by love for his family and a legacy that will continue through the generations. Lonzell was preceded in death by his loving parents, Amanda Wyatt and Charles Wyatt Sr. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Jesse Wyatt, Charles Wyatt Jr., and James Wyatt.

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted sister: Nelly Moore and Betty Ann Wyatt; his beloved brothers David Wyatt and Gibson Wyatt and his loving children Allen Bailey and Nia (Jermaine) Brown. Lonzell was a proud grandfather to Auria Brown and Victoria Brown, who brought him much joy and happiness. His legacy continues through his cherished great-grandchildren, Leon, Nyemah, and Mylin whose lives will forever be touched by his love.

He also leaves behind a host of cousins, extended family members, dear friends, and all whose lives were blessed by knowing him. Though he has departed from this earthly life, the memories he created, the love he shared, and the example he set will remain in the hearts of those who loved him.

Lonzell life reminds us that while our loved ones may leave our sight, they never leave our hearts. His memory will forever be a source of comfort, strength and inspiration to his family & friends.
