"This is my Story"

Mabel Louise Williams was born into this world on July 10, 1953, in Greenwood, Mississippi to Booker T. Moore Sr. and Katie Mae Tiggs. Mabel grew up in the Greenwood LeFleur County Public School system and graduated from Amanda Elzy High School in 1971.

Mabel moved to Detroit, Michigan right after high school and went to work in her Aunt Mattie’s neighborhood grocery store, C&N Market. Mabel worked diligently in her aunt’s store for 3 years until fate stepped and took its course. Mabel answered a newspaper ad in June 1974 to hire on in the housekeeping department at Metropolitan Hospital. Mabel and I met at the hospital’s human resources department as I was making a delivery when I laid eyes on Mabel, immediately I knew that she would be my future wife. It was love at first sight for me, Mabel was a very shy and reserved lady, and I knew that she would be a challenge. It took about 3 months for us to begin our urban romantic romance. I proposed to Mabel on bended knee on February 25, 1977, and we were joined in together in holy matrimony on May 7, 1977. Mabel gave me her blessing to join the United States Air Force in January 1977. After basic training and Tech School Mabel and I traveled to my first duty assignment located at Kirtland AFB, Albuquerque, New Mexico. Mabel settled into military life as my spouse and she worked at the base commissary then off base at Motorola electronics. We lived in military housing residing in our 1st house as a married couple.

In June of 1978 during a doctor’s visit, we found out that Mabel was pregnant with our 1st child we were so happy and excited with this news, unfortunately I had orders to relocate overseas to a new duty assignment at Kleine Brogel Air Base Belgium. We decided that Mabel would give birth in her hometown of Greenwood, Mississippi and stay with her mother and sister. When I found a house in Belgium, I flew back to pick up my wife and bring her back with me to our home in Belgium, when I arrived back to Mabel’s hometown Diane, Mabel’s sister met me at the airport and told me Mabel had a miscarriage in her 6th month. Mabel and I named our 1st child Milikah Louise Williams, unfortunately our daughter was stillborn, and she received her wings on December 18th, 1978, two weeks later Mabel and I flew back to Belgium to our new home. We stayed in Belgium for 3 years and traveled to Holland, Germany enjoying the local cuisine and living among the Belgian people. Mabel loved the Lord and she prayed for me daily Mabel always saw the best in people. Mabel led me to the Lord, and I gave my life to him in 1994. Mabel made friends easily and a few of her friends became lifelong relationships. Mabel loved babies, toddlers, and Pre-K kids, do Mabel enrolled in Mississippi Valley State University and graduated in May, 1994 with a B.A in Sociology and Early Childhood Education, Mabel was a Head Teacher in Daycare for 2yr olds, Mabel sometimes reached in her pocket to buy supplies whenever the school’s budget comes up short, Mabel would say “Why should my babies suffer”. Mabel loved all children that were in her care Mabel was the only instructor to play Christian music to help the children sleep and rest during nap time in her classroom.

Mabel retired from the day care industry in 2017. We both spent the resto of our lives loving each other, looking after each other, and spoiling each other.

Mabel was diagnosed in 1997 with stage 4 thyroid cancer, Jesus heard Mabel’s prayer request to restore health and years to her life and Jesus answered her prayer and gave her 29 more years of life to pour in her students, spending more time with her family, her friends and most of all her husband, me.

Mabel went home to be with the Lord on Thursday May 28th, 2026, at 1:42 p.m. in St. Francis hospital, I was with her all the way until Mabel took her last breath.

Mabel is survived by her loving husband of 49 years Anthony Williams, sister Mary Hodge brother Douglas Pickens (Daniella), cousins John Mallett, Dr. Tammy Mallett. Her brothers in love Tommy Williams (Rashida), and Walter Williams (Linda). Diane Johnson preceded her in death and Claude Johnson brother in love Diane’s husband. She also leaves to cherish her memory her stepson, Shakir Graham; stepdaughter, Alyssa Luna; Anthony Williams; two grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

The Lord answered our joint prayer of where to go in this country. The lord told us to move to Tulsa, Ok and attend Rhema Bible Church we moved to Tulsa in July 1994. Mabel loved the Services that was available to congregation, school of the bible activities and other social activities helped us grow as Christians. Mabel made great friends at our home church.
