

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me to lie down in
green pastures:

He leads me beside the still waters.

He restores my soul: He leads me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for you are with me;
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies:

You anoint my head with oil;
my cup runs over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the Lord forever.

In Loving Memory of

Sylvia Waytiuk

June 9, 1945—July 11, 2025

Sylvia Waytiuk (Ross) was born on Saturday, June 9, 1945, to her parents, Jane Lathlin and Art Dorion. She unexpectedly passed away Friday, July 11, 2025, with family by her side son Reginald Warnock and daughter Rhonda Warnock and daughter in-law Sandra Wog and sister Lydia Constant and uncle Gary, at St Paul's Personal Care Home, The Pas, Manitoba, at the age of 80 years.

Sylvia was one of six children that all grew up The Pas, she went to school in The Pas she had a large amount of family throughout the reserve and was loved by many.

Then Sylvia met Murray G. Warnock, and they had three children Reginald Murray Warnock, Rhonda D. Warnock and Melinda Ruth Warnock.

Sylvia loved to play bingo in her spare time, she also called bingo in Prince George where she raised her children while providing for them travelling around British Columbia going to reserves on the west coast and up north to help Indigenous families upgrade their homes.

Sylvia had a passion for helping people when ever they needed help she would help friends and family.

Sylvia battled numerous health conditions throughout her life, which contributed to her passing.

Sylvia is survived by her son Reginald Warnock; daughters Rhonda and Melinda Warnock; grandchildren Travis, Brianna, Brad and Brittany; great grandchildren Daxton, Dayana, Drianna, and Dawson; her two sisters Lydia (Gary) Constant, Caroline (Cheta) Ross; and brother Jimmy Crivia; numerous nieces and nephews.

Our mother was reunited with her parents Jane Lathlin and Art Dorion; brothers Raymond Ross, Philip Dorion and Larry Flett; and her sister Victoria Merasty (Ross). If we forgot anyone it was not intentional.

People: Give Rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting. You only are immortal, the creator and maker of all; And we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, "You are dust, and to dust you shall return." All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither signing but life everlasting.
