Obituary

Sheila James was born on March 31, 1940, in Camrose Saint James, Jamaica, to Conrad Rodney and Jestina McPherson. From her earliest days, Sheila carried a quiet strength and a steadfast faith that would guide her throughout her life.

As a young woman, Sheila met and married Errol James, and together they shared many years of matrimony and welcomed several children before later parting ways. With unwavering dedication, Sheila worked as a seamstress for many years to help support her family. After migrating to the United States, she continued her life of service by entering the field of health care. In 1998, she became a Certified Nursing Assistant, faithfully caring for others in that role until her retirement.

Sheila's heart for ministry was most clearly seen in her love for Pathfinders. She served joyfully in the Army of the Lord and was a Pathfinder Director for many years in the various churches she attended. Under her leadership, her clubs earned countless trophies—so many that she was eventually awarded one of her own. Her dedication and excellence were so abundant that she needed two sashes to hold all the honors she received.

Crocheting was one of Sheila's greatest joys, and she became lovingly known for her beautiful blanket sets and the many baby blankets she crafted over the years. In recent years, she expanded her creativity to bedding and matching pillow sets, pouring love and care into every stitch. She also found peace in tending the flowers in her garden, nurturing beauty wherever she could. Above all, Sheila loved singing and praising the Lord. Her deep knowledge of Scripture—from Genesis to Revelation—was a testament to her devotion and her lifelong walk with God.

On September 5, 2026, in Loganville, Georgia, Sheila James passed away at the age of 86. She was preceded in death by her parents, Jestina McPherson and Conrad Rodney.

She leaves to cherish her memory her siblings: Rose Johnson, Barrington Anderson, and Glenroy Givens; her children: Wayne White, Sue Ann Messam Remy, Sophia James, Kaye Messam Reno, Kerry Ann James Stoddart, and Gregory James; her grandchildren: Kenecy White, Keneisha Longmore, Kimora White, Sloane Mattadeen, Clay Remy, Nicholas Wright, Dontea West, Nina Reno, Najee Reno, Marlie Reno, Devol Stoddart, Kevornese Stoddart, Kenya Stoddart, Keerin Stoddart, Karter Stoddart, Teri Minnis, Kaheilyah James, and Elijah James; her greatgrandchildren: Aiden Longmore, Alec Longmore, and Londyn Minnis James; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and beloved friends.

Our fond memories of Sheila will forever remain in our hearts, and we rejoice in knowing she now rests awaiting the return of her Savior.
