

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Patrick Andrew Haubris

May 24, 1952 - August 13, 2009

Patrick Andrew Haubris was born May 24, 1952, in Sisseton, SD. He was the son of William and Frances (Schneider) Haubris. He was raised in the Peever-Wilmot area and attended schools in Sisseton and Wilmot. He was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic faith and had been a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church in Sisseton.

Upon his move to Bloomington, MN in the early 1970's, Pat trained in the steel industry and was one of the two dozen precision flame cutters nation wide. Pat was united in marriage with Pamela Webster on April 18, 1975, in Wilmot, SD. Together they lived in Bloomington, MN. They were blessed with a son, Keith, in August of 1978.

1980 saw a move to Rapid City, SD, and a change in careers, becoming an award winning sales representative for a major Sioux Falls oil company. A transfer back to eastern South Dakota in 1987 brought them home to Wilmot and eventually another career change to insurance sales. For several years, Pat owned his own company hauling freight under the name "Sundown Trucking." Later he moved on to owning a small parts company and working with road construction. At the time of his death he was self employed as a welder and in iron salvage, working on a part time basis due to health reasons.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Pamela Dee Haubris

June 1, 1953 - October 26, 2022

Pamela Dee (Webster) Haubris was born on June 1, 1953. She was the daughter of Gordon Joseph Webster and Mavis Geneva (Hicks) Webster. Pam grew up in Wilmot and graduated from Wilmot High School. She was united in marriage with Patrick Andrew Haubris on April 18, 1975, in Wilmot. Together they lived in Bloomington, MN, where their son, Keith, was born in August of 1978.

In 1980, the family moved to Rapid City, SD. They moved to Wilmot in 1987. Pam worked for Browns Valley Health Center until her retirement. She later worked part-time at Wilmot Care Center. Pam enjoyed sewing in her spare time. She loved to make doll outfits. She was an avid book reader and read a large majority of the books in the Wilmot Library. She was a talented artist and enjoyed calligraphy. She had a "green thumb" and loved raising both vegetables and flowers in her gardens.

Left to cherish her memory are her son and daughter-in-law, Keith and Brandi Haubris of Wilmot, SD; four grandsons: Scott, Gavin Kaden, and Kolby Haubris.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Gordon and Mavis; and her husband, Pat.

When we are gone,
and people weep for us & grieve,
let it be because we touched their lives with Beauty & Simplicity.

Let it not be said
that life was good to us,
but, rather, we were good to life.
