

Judie was born in Veblen, SD, on January 14, 1950, to Rudy and Edna Anderson. She attended schools in Rutland, Havana, and Forman.

In October 1968, she married Ron Seavert, and together they raised three children: Stephanie, Christopher, and Brady.

Throughout her career, Judie served her community as a teller at Sargent County Bank, City Auditor of Forman, and Postmaster in Cogswell, Verona, and Fairmount, ND.

In 2010, Judie married Steve Grohs, and they enjoyed their time together at Lake Traverse and in Port Aransas, TX.

Judie's passions included sewing and quilting, entertaining friends and family, fishing, and playing pinochle and bridge. Her favorite place to be was on or near the water, where she could outfish anyone. She made friends wherever she went and was known for her infectious smile, her gift for bringing people together, and her love of community theatre. She contributed greatly to every community she was part of and will be remembered for her warmth, humor, and generosity.

Judie is survived by her husband, Steve; daughter, Stephanie Watson; son, Brady (Amy) Seavert; grandchildren, Emily Reller, Brevan (Hannah) Watson, Bramlee Watson, Addison Seavert, and Rylee Seavert; great-granddaughter, Blair Watson; sister, Sonja Christensen; brother, Jeff Anderson; along with many sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, and countless friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her first husband Ron, her son Christopher, and her brother Arden Anderson.

Judie was deeply loved and will be profoundly missed by all who knew her.

The family wishes to express their gratitude for your kind expressions of sympathy and for honoring Judie with your presence at the service

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found that peace at the close of the day

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered Joy

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life has been full, I've savored much

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief

Lift up your heart and share with me

God wanted me now, He set me FREE!
