

So Much Time

You had so much time for family
In the backyard of your home.
So much time for raising children
And to see how they've all grown.

So much time for laughter
Whenever your hand picked up the phone.
So much time for reminding us
We might be gone, but we're never alone.

So much time for Christmas cards
And birthdays and well wishes.
So much time for cooking meals
And cleaning up a million dishes.

So much time for the neighbor kids
And the flock within your ward.
So much time for being thankful
For what's been given to you by the Lord.

So much time for all your pets
While they may come and they may go.
So much time for family reunions
With dominoes and bingo.

So much time for a rocking chair
And your garden in the sun.
You had so much time to do so much
And you gave that time to everyone.

Now that it's time to say goodnight
We should "probably let'cha be going".
Just one more thing before we hang up
That we can't let you leave without you knowing.

All the time you gave to us
With bright smiles and gentle hugs.
All the ways you looked at us
With compassion and with love.

All the time you had on earth
To do with what you want.
All that time was spent on us
And it will never be forgot.

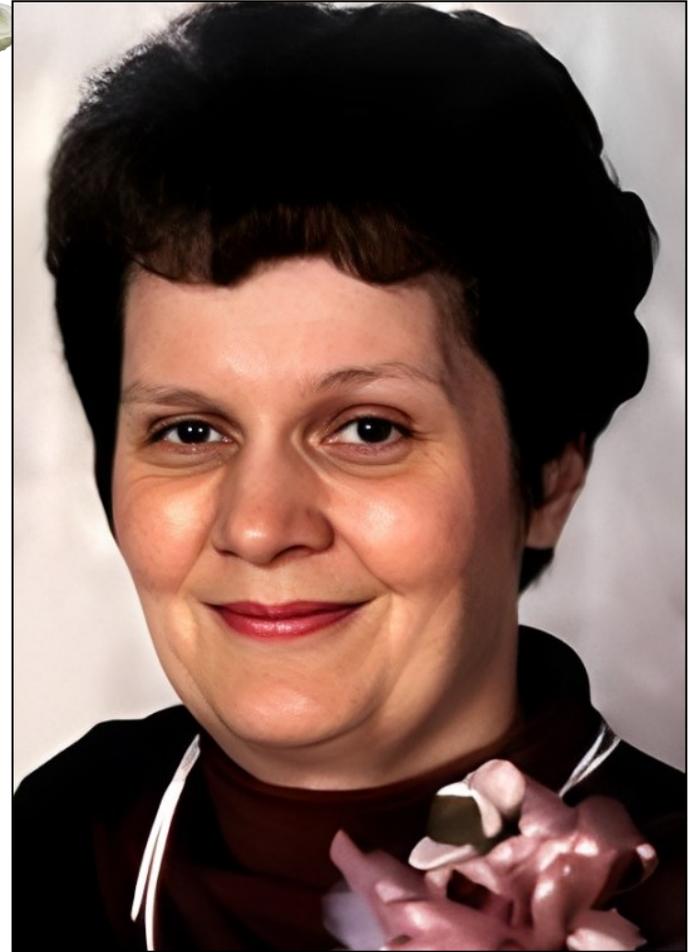

We'll remember the times we had with you
And the way they made us feel.
And bring those feelings back to the world
And make sure it's crystal clear.

Everything you taught us all
With kind words and a gentle touch
And hold on to your memory
Because we may have time...but not so much.
