May 22, 1983—February 1, 2024

Grief is the price we pay for love.

On Thursday, February 1, 2024, Angelique Yvonne Merasty passed from a tragic death in Lynn Lake, Manitoba, at the age of 40 years.

Angelique was born to parents August and Marie Merasty on Sunday, May 22, 1983. She was born in Thompson, Manitoba. Angelique was the youngest of six siblings.

Angelique grew up in Lynn Lake. She attended school at West Lynn Heights School. She worked hard to obtain her secondary school diploma. Angelique attended University of the North where she successfully completed training and obtaining a diploma in Culinary Arts. She was enrolled in a training program for drilling before her passing. Despite many struggles Angelique had, she never gave up on pursuing goals she set out for herself.

Angelique was a loving and caring mother. Her work revolved around making sure her kids were taken care of. She could often be seen at the park interacting and having fun with her children. Her children were her inspiration to make life better for them and herself.

One of Angelique's highlights in life was the day she became a grandmother to her grandson Dillon Kelly. She held her grandson, with great deal of joy, happiness and great pride.

Angelique loved the outdoors. She loved camping, fishing, going on nature walks, family barbeques and taking part in many cultural activities with her children, family and friends. She also had an adventurous side to her where she would go hunting with family and friends. Angelique loved attending church with her children and family every opportunity she got. She often went with her mother.

Angelique had a fun side to her. She had an infectious funny sense of humour, often making people around her laugh. She loved playing jokes on her friends and siblings, a trait she most likely inherited from her late father. One of her favorite sayings was "awesome opossum." Another favorite saying of Angelique's was "I know, I Know." She was often teased by her siblings for knowing everything. Angelique also enjoyed watching movies and listening to music with her children. She was blessed with ability to spontaneously belt out a good country song. She especially liked listening to gospel songs.

She also had a serious side to her where she was a compassionate human being. Angie was a very caring person was always willing to help out family or friends. She knew that struggles were real and would often make people feel supported through caring and compassion. She had the ability to bring happiness to those she met.

Angelique was a beautiful, kind and loving person who was loved by so many people. Angelique was the type of person who would do all she could to help people who needed it.
