

To our Mother, Lorraine:

To our friend & mother, sister & daughter Lorraine,
so kind and true,

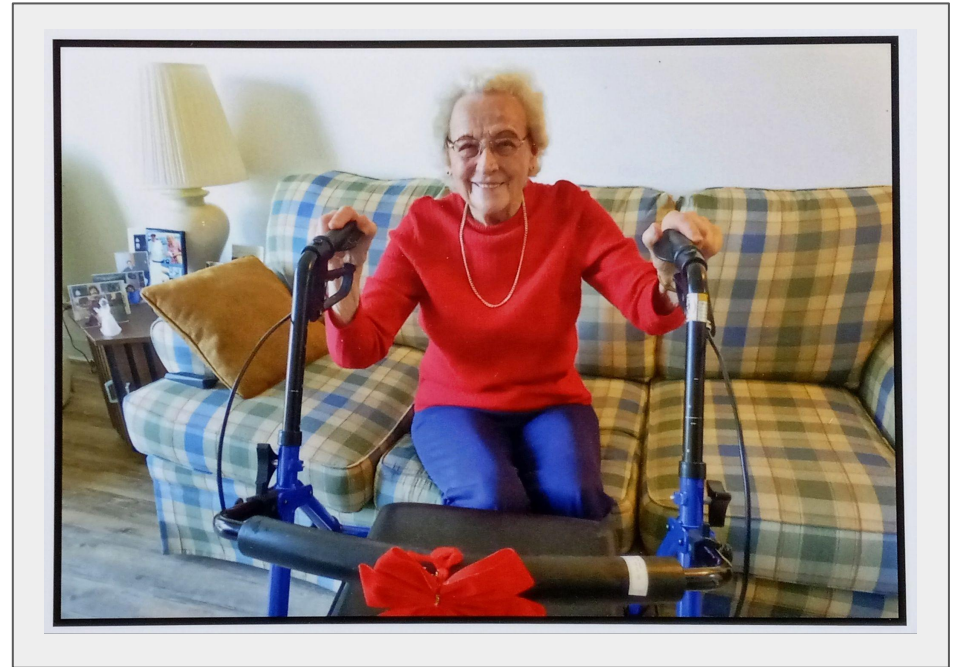

She shared God's great love in all she'd do.
With gentle hands and a faithful heart,
She gave her family the finest part.

Through every trial, through joy and pain,
Her steady prayers fell down like rain.
She walked with Christ both day and night,
A shining soul, a peaceful light.

Though Heaven called and took her home,
We trust she'll never walk alone.
For in God's arms she rests above,
Surrounded now by endless love.

Until we meet beyond the sky,
Her faith and memory shall never die.

Thank you for attending and sharing in Lorraine's Celebration of Life gathering.

Lorraine Mae Skabronski - Peck was born on October 6th, 1930 in Gold Butte, Montana, but grew up in Polson, Montana.

She was the daughter of William and Agnes Skabronski. Her dad was born in Poland in 1895 and came to the US in 1910.

In 1949, Lorraine married Gale Peck from Kalispell and they had five children, Andrew (Jo Ann), Mary Anne (Bob), Dennis, Tracy (Josephine) and John, who all grew up in Seattle (Ballard), Dennis died in 2016.

After Gale & Lorraine were divorced in 1979, she worked as a receptionist in the Ballard area of Seattle for 25 years, Gale died in 1997.

Lorraine is survived by siblings: Mardell (Dick) Lockwood, Wilhelmina (Ray) Johnson, Carl (Annette) Skabronski and Elizabeth () Ellis. Brother Joe & sister Margaret (Jack) Fay passed away earlier, as did Baby William.

Lorraine accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior in 1988 and became "born again". Her prayer was that her loved ones would do the same.

She attended Philadelphia Church, across the street from where she lived at Loyal Heights Manor. She moved to Angel Light Family Home in Lynnwood this year.
