Park held a special place in Mickey's heart, serving as his sanctuary and a source of inspiration.

Mickey's love was boundless, particularly for the woman who captivated his heart and blessed him with two beautiful daughters, Kayanna "Peaches" Fowlkes. He found solace and joy in the game of billiards, often seeking friendly competition at Edna's, Over The Top, Alho or Garden Bar, where his sister, Ineda Harris, was frequently his companion.

He leaves behind a deeply saddened circle of friends and family, including his mother, Pauline (Williams) Gordon, his two cherished daughters, Quanteria Tayanna Williams and Diamonique Decinces Williams, and his goddaughter, Averie
Carr. Also mourning his loss are his grandmother, Frances Avis
Williams, his loving sisters, Ineda Harris and Terrell (Harris)
Battle, along with his brother-in-law, Donelle Battle.
Additionally, he is survived by numerous siblings on his father's side, uncles Craig Hughes and Carl Williams (Eva), aunts Maxine Dawkins (Alan), Helen Diane Johnson, Nadine Heath (Thomas), and Elaine Williams.; two nieces Monye' and Aviana and three nephews Daquan, Divine and Dakaree. Mickey held dear his close friends, Daniel and Rome, and leaves behind a multitude cousins, friends, and co-workers who will miss him dearly during this time of sorrow.

Daddy,

I love you! I love you more than you know.

You are my best friend, and our bond is unbreakable.
Student and Teacher. We always spoke love, knowledge, and laughter. I'm going to be honest-I'm scared but I'm ready.
I'm ready to be the person. Continue to guide me and give me strength as I move forward. I promise to make you proud.

Daddy,

You are truly like no other. You believed in me, protected me strengthened me and loved me. Thank up for always being there when I needed you the most. You will always be the first man I ever loved. The first hand I ever held and my one and only Daddy. I'll love you forever and a day and I will always be Daddy's Little Girl.

Short Stuff

To My King Germico D. Williams

I was blessed with a King that amazed me from birth. God gave you to me for 47 wonderful years on this earth. With the good and the bad times, you were an amazing son and father. You did everything you set your mind on and you reached even further. You amaze me when you told me you got the job you wanted – Executive Chef on a cruise ship. I knew you could do wonders. I am proud of you, My son. My King.

Mommy

Big Bro

The way you left me was sudden and fast.
Not knowing our conversation on Father's Day would be our last.
The words I LOVE YOU was always spoken.
The bond we built it could never be broken.
We were always together cracking jokes and acting a fool.
Dancing and drinking or maybe just shooting pool.
Late night conversations or just venting over the phone.
Somethings wasn't discussed, like what to do after God call you home.
My heart is heavy, my eyes are filled with tears.
I feel lost without you not being here.
You ran a good race Bro job well done.
Till we meet again Congrats Bro you have won.
I LOVE YOU BRO.

Ineda

Time Slips By

Time slips by and life must go on but from my heart you are never gone.
I think about you always. My tears flow like a fountain
Then I remember you could move mountains.
I know you are by my side in laughter and in sorrow,
In sunshine and in rain. I know you're watching over us until we meet again.
