I'm Free!

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call Then turned and bid farewell to it all*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace....at the close of the day*

*And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I will too miss*

*Be not burdened deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savored much Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wants me now....He set me free!*

Mom,

*You were always there to help me, no matter what life would bring.
To laugh with me, to be proud of me, and share all the happy things.
But even more importantly you were always there when plans went wrong to help me work things out when disappointments came along.
And so I want to thank you mom and tell you lovingly you were the best thing life has given to me!*

Your Sons,

William M. Jones and Michael Jones

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Her Journey

Doris Funches was born on March 18, 1940 to Hermena Funches and Meade Faust in Philadelphia PA. Doris was a devoted mother and grandmom.

At the age of 16 she gave birth to her beautiful daughter who she named Debra Funches. At age 17 she married William M. Jones Sr. and gave birth again at age 18 to William M. Jones Jr. and finally at age 20 her youngest child Michael Jones was born. Unfortunately, William Sr. died briefly after the marriage. Doris was forced to become a single parent. She worked odd jobs and did what was necessary to make sure her three children always had a roof over they head and food on the table. They where her pride and joy. Doris took a job at NorrisTown State Hospital which she was employed with for 25 years before retirement.

After retirement Doris made sure to enjoy her life. She was always the life of the party. She loved dancing, travelling, going out to shows or just relaxing watching her favorite tv shows. Over the years Doris became an advocate for the less fortunate - she was always willing to help anybody. If you were hungry she would feed you whether she knew you or not. She was a big supporter of kids and animals, she was such a big contributor to St. Judes and ASPCA. She was very giving to strays in her neighborhood. She would not go a day without making sure they had breakfast and dinner.

Doris' inner strength and generosity come from her love and faith in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Doris was a faithful member of Enon Church. She enjoyed sermons and engaging with fellow members. She will be truly missed.

She passed away peacefully on March 18, 2025 surrounded by her loving family. Doris was preceded in death by her mother, Hermena Funches; father, Meade Faust; husband, William M. Jones Sr.; daughter, Debra Funches; and grandson, Terrance Funches. She leaves behind to cherish her memory sons, William M. Jones Jr. and Michael Jones; daughters-in law, Barbara Jones and Tamika Jones; granddaughters, Doris (Nikki) Funches, Shawree Dean, Jennifer Jones, Wilnette Jones, Latoria Jones; grandsons, Jermaine (Shorty) Funches, William Jones III, Michael Funches, Timothy Funches; granddaughters-in-law, Chante Funches, Diane Mcguogan, Osha Jones; grandsons-in-law, Donnell (Dino) Reid, James Dean; best friends, Elera and Nathaniel Camper; close friends, Delores Helms, Bernadette Shirely, Paul and Deneise Davis and family, The Ivey Sisters; and a host of great grandkids, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted.
