

God Saw You

God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you, and whispered, "Come to me".
You didn't deserve what you went through, so He gave you rest.

God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back to suffer that again.

We offer a special tribute to Curtis Ervin, a steady, faithful presence in Mariah's life. Curtis walked beside her through heart procedures, cardiology appointments, and every difficult season with unwavering love. He showed her what a true father's heart looks like—always present, always protective, always ready to mend what was broken. His devotion brought comfort, strength, and security to Mariah, and his love will forever remain near to her heart. Today, we honor not only Mariah's life, but the extraordinary fatherly love Curtis poured into her journey.

Obituary

Mariah Alexandria Wilson, born on Friday, April 8, 2005, at Mount Carmel St. Ann's Hospital in Westerville, Ohio, entered the world with a bright spirit and a tender heart that would leave a lasting imprint on everyone who knew her.

Mariah grew up in Virginia Beach, Virginia, where she graduated from Green Run High School in June 2023. During her time there, she was a proud member of the Green Run High School Dance Team, which achieved significant recognition in 2023 by winning the VHSL (Virginia High School League) Cheerleading and Dance Regional Multi-Team Event. Their victory carried them to Washington, D.C., where they performed and represented their school with excellence and pride.

A true lover of food and creativity, Mariah pursued her passion by attending Job Corps in Maryland, where she studied Culinary Arts. Her joy for cooking reflected her generous nature—she loved bringing people together through meals, laughter, and shared moments.

Mariah is preceded in death by her beloved grandparents, Billy Earl Wilson and Irene Wilson.

She is survived by a large and loving family who will forever cherish her memory: Verda (Curtis) Ervin, Michael (Felina) Wilson, Susan Marshall, Richard (Joyce) Roberts Jr., Latricia (Tim) Miller, Larry (Kelly) Belcher, Tiffany (Stephen) Johnson, Richard Roberts III, Antwan Roberts, Reginald (Kaleigh) Newkirk, Sydney (Frank) Marsh, Ronnie Kenley, Candace (Trevette) Knight, Makaela Wilson, Michael Wilson II, Semarra Ervin, Curtis Ervin Jr., Macey Ervin, Madison Ervin, and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins, and extended loved ones.

Mariah's life was a gift—full of creativity, compassion, and quiet strength. Her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all who loved her.

Until We Meet Again

Unknown

We think about you always, we talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten, and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts, and there you will remain, to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.
