NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Dear Family and Friends,

I want you to know that I have moved. I received a call from God, the chief architect, who informed me that my new home was ready and that I could move in immediately. I just didn't have time to give you notice.

My new home is finished and it's such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a Pearly Gate, just off a serene celestial shore. Of course, the streets are paved with gold and everyday is Sunday here, I have been told.

There is Peace, Joy, Happiness here with no more pain and cares for the world to bear. No strife, nor discontent, there is only sweet serenity everywhere. Let me give you my new address, because I highly recommend you make plans to live here too:

1 Gate To The City Avenue
Godstown, Heaven 71717

P.S. I don't have a telephone yet, but just call God. If you don't have His number, He is listed in the Good Book on every page. Contact Him.

The Legacy of Phyllis Hale

Phyllis Hale, affectionately known as "Mamo," was a quiet introvert who loved unconditionally. She loved her wonderful husband, whom she had been united in matrimony for 63 years before his passing. However, it was her grandchildren who made her heart skip a beat. As each one entered her life, her heart seemed to grow larger. She took pride in waiting on the porch every Sunday after church was over to watch her grands gaze with amazement over her soul food southern Sunday meal. She was an amazing cook.

Phyllis was born and raised in New Market, Tennessee, to the late Roger and Lorene Scruggs. She has one brother, Ronald, whom she loved dearly. She attended Nelson Mary High School in Jefferson City, TN. She played the piano for her church and enjoyed being a Sunday School teacher. She took up cosmetology school in Knoxville, TN. After graduating with her cosmetology license, she took flight on a leap of faith into her destiny and headed to Columbus, OH, to move in with her uncle. She moved to Ohio, where she met a smooth-talking, handsome, confident man named Roger, who later became the love of her life. To this union, two beautiful daughters were added to their small in size, but large with love, family. Phyllis worked at Nationwide Insurance for 30-plus years until she retired to raise her grandchildren.

On Monday, November 24th, Phyllis's husband came in her room, sat in the chair, and said to her, "It's time to go." Those who love her take comfort in the knowledge that she is now resting with her husband and daughter. Those waiting to greet her in Heaven include both her parents, Roger and Lorene Scruggs, wonderful daughter Kimberly Terrell, and her amazing husband, Roger, who she missed tremendously.

Those remaining to uplift and carry forward her beautiful legacy is her loving daughter, Kristy (Sherwin) Armistead; brother, Ronald (Stephanie) Scruggs; grandchildren, Jada (Andre) Turner, Juan (De'Audra), Sherria, Danyelle, Simone, Syrai, Sherwin Jr.; great-grandchildren, Jajuan, Jamera, Jordyn, Jevaeh, Dalaun, Jaceonna, Damiya, Joelle, Juakeem, and Jemini; great-great granddaughter, J'Ream; sister-in-law, Marion Scales; brother-in-law, Alvin Street; bonus daughters, Thomasina Armstead, JoAnn Rogers, and Tracie McConnell; bonus son, Melvin "Hip" Armistead; and best friend, Gail Jarnagin from New Market, TN. She will be missed by a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A Letter to My Mommy

Mommy,

On July 18th, 1968 at 7:30PM the day you held me in your arms, your entire life was placed on hold. How do I know, because you made sacrifices, you had to call off work when I was sick and couldn't go to school.

You made every open house and told me that my art was nice even when you had to ask me what it was, every parent teacher conference and I cannot forget the day I called you and said daycare for Sherria and Simone was so ridiculous, you without hesitation said, "I'm turning in my retirement notice to take that stress off your plate. That's why I can say that your life was on hold like only a phenomenal mom would do.

The day daddy left us my exact words to you were "I got you". Daddy you will be so proud of your daughter and son-in-love. Sherwin did not let you down, he said he would take care of Mommy with no effort. When Kim took her last breath, without any hesitation, your bags were packed and I told you a nursing home was not an option. This last year, yes my life was on hold but I remember telling you "Don't worry mom, one day I will be honored to do what you did for me."

When I spoke to you at 10:45 AM you told me "Kristy your dad is here, he kept me up all night but I'm leaving with him and we are going through a bright tunnel, I'll call you in the morning." I never thought it would be in the morning on the other side through pearly gates.

Mommy take your rest with your husband and daughter they needed you more than I did, with God I can handle it from here. Until we are all back together again, try not to let daddy get on your nerves but he came and got his baby just reminisce and tell everyone, I will see you in the morning,

*I love you endlessly
Your baby girl Kristy*
