Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance...

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

OBITUARY

Marcy Lee "Dear" Hunter

Marcy Lee (Baldwin) Hunter affectionately known as "Dear", a beloved member of her community, passed away on June 29, 2025, in Cleburne. Born November 2, 1932, in Dayton, Texas, Marcy was known for her spunky spirit, deep faith, and unwavering love for her family, church, and education.

She devoted a significant part of her life to serving as the first lady of Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church alongside her husband, Cornelius Hunter. Marcy's commitment to her faith and her community was evident through her lively presence and passionate involvement in church activities. As a special education teacher, she impacted countless lives, demonstrating her profound belief in the potential of every child.

Marcy is preceded in death by her husband, Cornelius Hunter, daughter, Wanda Elaine Clay; parents, Joe Baldwin and Mabel Guidry; and three siblings.

She is survived by her children, Tammy Washington and Erick Hunter; grandchildren, Destany Williams, Chelvalier Levels (Marcus), Tremaine Clay (Jessica), Geneva Washington, Genova Smith (Bernard), Aubree Washington, Quinten J. Washington II, Juli'el Hunter, and Ja'Quarius Hunter; 11 great-grandchildren, with one more on the way, son-in-law, Robert Clay, and numerous nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Marcy Lee Hunter will be remembered not only for her dedication to family and faith but also for her indomitable spirit that inspired all who knew her. Marcy's legacy will live on through her family and the countless individuals whose lives she touched through her teaching and ministry.
