Ventnor T. Wright, Funeral Director

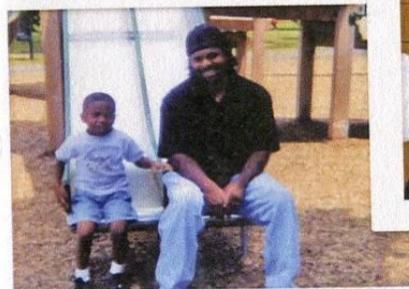

He was employed at the Chester County Housing Authority for 19 years. He had worked for the City of Coatesville, Paradise Management and was the owner of his own business, Way to Go Home Improvements.

Wayland was jovial and full of life. He enjoyed motorcycle riding and playing soccer. He had been the co-founder and President of the Road Dogs Motorcycle club. A comedian in his own right, he enjoyed making people laugh. He also enjoyed music and singing. He was known to often make up his own songs.

Wayland departed this life June 3, 2015 at the Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia. In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by one son (baby) Michael Butler Washington.

Wayland is survived by his mother, Janet Washington Lane of Maryland; two daughters, Janise (Christopher) Woodward of Coatesville PA, Deja Washington of Christiana PA; two sons, Wayland Washington, Jr. and Jayland Washington both of Coatesville PA; fiancé, Lateisha Bland of Coatesville PA; step-daughter Jada Murrey of Coatesville PA; siblings, Chelsa Minch and Lori Lee Minch both of California,

David (Dimara) Miller of Florida, Monica Griffin of Pottstown, Wayland "Mag" (Stacey) Marshall of Norristown PA, Sara Mansfield of Lancaster PA, Jay (Marlene) Washington of Maryland and Jeanine Washington of Coatesville PA; grandson, Christopher L. Woodward, Jr. and many relatives and friends.
