

A LETTER FROM HEAVEN

*When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.*

Obituary

Rosalie “Nesie” Gainey, 77, of Lakewood, New Jersey passed away on Monday, September 5, 2016 at Ocean Medical Center, in Brick, NJ. She was born on October 20, 1938 in Saint Simons Island, Georgia to Constance Davis and Grant Wilson.

As the eldest of thirteen, and a southern belle, Rosa spent her youth helping with her siblings and working as a cigarette girl where she met her husband. On October 21, 1956, she married the love of her life, W.J. Gainey and soon after they moved north to start their lives together. They eventually settled down in Lakewood, New Jersey where they would extend and raise their family.

Over the years she worked for various companies including but not limited to Amway Global, ABC Company, and Jersey Shore Egg Factory. She was also a member of the Eastern Star Masonic Lodge, and most recently the church of ITM Ministries until an illness limited her mobility.

Rosa’s main focus was being a homemaker, mother and wife in a loving marriage for 57 years. Her loving spirit and welcoming heart made her a great friend to a number of people and a second mother, or Nana, for many in the community.
