

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
of happy memories that I leave, when life is done.*

Obituary

In Loving Memory of Arturo Casaz Osorio

Arturo Casaz Osorio, born in Cuernavaca, Morelos, later made his home in Austin, Texas. He was the beloved son of Catalina Casas Osorio and Teodilo Casas.

Arturo attended Reagan High School and went on to earn his journeyman electrician license. He was a dedicated and hardworking electrician, respected by his peers and known for his skill and reliability on the job.

Above all, Arturo was a devoted father. He leaves behind four children whom he loved deeply: Stephanie, Brenda, Lilyanna, and Alejandro Casaz. His love for his children was unwavering, and they were his greatest pride. He was also a proud grandfather to two beautiful granddaughters, Sarah and Aleah, who brought him immense joy and were a light in his life.

Arturo cherished spending time with his family, especially his mother and his sisters—Reyna, Celia, and Katy. He also shared a close bond with his nieces and nephews, whom he treated as his own. Whether he was joking with them, sharing life lessons, or simply spending time together, Arturo was a constant source of support, laughter, and love. His presence in their lives was a gift they will always carry with them.

A passionate fisherman, Arturo found peace and joy on the water. Whether alone or with loved ones, fishing was more than a pastime—it was one of his favorite ways to relax and enjoy life.

Arturo will be remembered for his unforgettable sense of humor, his warm heart, and the countless stories he shared. His laughter, love, and legacy will live on in all who knew and loved him.
