

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.*

3 He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

*5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever.

In Loving Memory of

Galina Sheremeta

February 19, 1972

July 13, 2026

Galina Sheremeta, 54, of Sedalia, MO, went on to meet her Lord and Savior Jesus on Monday, July 13, 2026. She was born on February 19, 1972, in Rivne, Ukraine the daughter of Leonid Kravchuk and Maria (Buben) Kravchuk, who preceded her in death.

On July 20, 2008, in Sedalia, MO, she was united in marriage to Aleksandr Sheremeta, who resides in the home.

Galina was born in Ukraine, where the foundation of her faith and love for others began. In 1988, she immigrated to the United States with her family, settling in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

In time, the Lord opened the door for Galina and her family to move to Florida. There, she worked as a caregiver for the elderly, serving with compassion and kindness. Her heart for helping others was evident in every season of her life.

In 1995, God again led her family, this time to Alaska. Galina began working as an ESL teacher assistant. More than teaching, she viewed her work as a ministry. She had a special love for children and faithfully used every opportunity to encourage them, share the love of Christ, and be a light to those around her in the schools.

In 2001, Galina's sister, Lesya, dreamed of opening a bakery. Through Galina's dedication and creativity, she developed the award-winning almond cake recipe that became the signature of Honey Bakery. Together, their vision became a successful family business, bringing joy to countless people through their baking.

Outside of her work, Galina devoted much of her free time to spreading the Gospel. She printed Christian tracts, sermons, and other biblical materials at her own expense and freely distributed them to anyone she met. She was unwavering in her faith, unashamed of the Gospel, and eager to share the testimonies of God's faithfulness wherever she went. Her greatest desire was that others would come to know Jesus Christ.

In 2008, a relative told Galina about a family of seven children who had lost their mother. She earnestly prayed for God's direction, and through prayer she became convinced that caring for this family was the calling God had placed on her heart. She later married Aleksandr and lovingly embraced the role of mother to all seven children. With extraordinary patience, wisdom, and unconditional love, she helped raise each of them into adulthood, considering them her own. Her home became a place of warmth, encouragement, and hospitality, where family and friends alike were always welcomed with open arms, a lovingly prepared meal, and a generous heart.

In 2017, Galina, her husband, Aleksandr, and their children combined their talents and shared vision to open Sweet Delights Bakery. Together, they poured their hearts into the business, serving their community with exceptional baked goods and genuine hospitality. For Galina, the bakery was more than a business- it was another opportunity to build relationships, encourage others, and reflect Christ's love through acts of kindness and generosity.

Throughout her marriage and every chapter of her life, Galina continued to serve others with remarkable generosity. She faithfully supported missionary work, delighted in blessing people with flowers and thoughtful gifts, and consistently placed the needs of others before her own. She had a unique gift for making people feel seen, welcomed, and cared for. Whether opening her home, preparing food for others, offering a listening ear, or sharing words of encouragement, her hospitality reflected the love of Christ in tangible ways. She worked diligently in everything she set her heart and mind to accomplish, always putting others before herself with humility and joy.

Galina will be remembered as a woman of unwavering faith, selfless love, and steadfast devotion to God. She lived each day with the desire to glorify the Lord, and her life was a testimony of His grace. Her legacy lives on in the countless lives she touched through her witness, her compassion, her hospitality, her generosity, and the family she so faithfully loved and served.

In addition to her husband Aleksandr, Galina is survived by seven children, Valeriy Sheremeta and his wife Iryna, of Knoxville, TN, Liliya Yermeni and her husband Yuri, of Long Valley, NJ, Dina Ryazantsev and her husband Yevgeniy of Knoxville, TN, Vladik Sheremeta and his wife Inna, of Sedalia, MO, Nadiya Sheremeta, of Knoxville, TN, Tim Sheremeta, of Sedalia, MO, and Arthur Sheremeta, of Sedalia, MO; eight grandchildren, Matthew Sheremeta, Isabella Sheremeta, Zachariah Yermeni, Zara Yermeni, Zoey Yermeni, Jonathan Ryazantsev, Benjamin Ryazantsev, and Aviya Sheremeta; two brothers, Valentin Kravchuk and his wife Nataliya of Delta Junction, AK and Sergey Kravchuk and his wife Nila, of Auburn, WA; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family.

In addition to her parents, Galina was preceded in death by a brother, Peter Kravchuk; and a sister Lesya Kravchuk.

Memorial contributions may be made to the family in care of Aleksandr Sheremeta.
