

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Obituary

Phillip Moore Sr., 64, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away on November 25, 2025. Born on November 10, 1961, to Marshall and Mary Lee Moore, Phillip led a life marked by adventure and a supportive family.

After high school, Phillip became the owner and operator of a car wash in Wyoming, managing the business for nearly four years. Inspired by his father's path, he later earned his chauffeur's license and joined him in the trucking industry. Over the next 21 years, Phillip traveled across 48 states as a tractor-trailer driver, demonstrating a strong passion for driving and transportation.

In the later years of his career, Phillip trained as an electrical apprentice and worked in the electrical field for several years until health challenges led him to step back. Throughout each chapter of his working life, he remained steadfast in his efforts to provide for those he loved.

Phillip was a devoted father to Kiana, Phillip Jr., Paul, and Mary. He found pride in his grandchildren—Tania, Alant'e, Tre'Nea, Keon, Dale, Eli, Ava, and Mia. His love extended to his great-grandchildren, Wynter, Ivy, and Chris. He is also greatly remembered by his siblings, Stanley Moore, Marvin Moore, Michael Moore, Joyce Weaver, and Devin Vance.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Mary Ashley Moore; his parents, Marshall and Mary Lee Moore; and his siblings, Marshall Jr., Carl Barge, and Marian Clay.

Phillip's legacy is one of resilience and devotion to family. His presence will be deeply missed but fondly remembered by all who knew him.

May his memory bring comfort and peace to those who loved him.

Let not your

Heart

be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many

Mansions;

if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.

Peace

I leave with you,
my peace I give unto you;
not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

- John 14:1-3,27
