Her Legacy

Sarah's legacy lives on in every heart she touched,
Through kindness, strength, and love so freely shared.
In every meal she lovingly prepared,
Every hand she helped, and every moment she cared.

She gave from her heart, expecting nothing in return,
Showing her love through all that she did.
Though her earthly journey has come to an end,
The memories of Sarah will never fade.

Rest peacefully, Sarah, your work here is done.
Your love remains forever
A precious gift to everyone.

Obituary

Sarah Lagland McFadden, affectionately known as "Sae Sae" and "Lilly," was born on October 14, 1961, in Lake City, South Carolina, to her loving parents, Handy McFadden and Rozeina McFadden. She was raised in Lake City, where she received her education graduating from Lake City High in 1979.

Sarah later made Wilmington, NC her home, 35 years of building relationships, making memories, and becoming a cherished part of the community.

Sarah was a woman who found joy in caring for others. She enjoyed cooking, styling and doing hair, cleaning, and helping those in need. She had a generous spirit and never hesitated to lend a helping hand. Sarah often visited food banks and pantries and would give to others to help make sure they had what they needed. Her willingness to serve others was among the qualities that made her so special.

The memories she created will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

Sarah Lagland McFadden peacefully transitioned from this early life on August 4, 2026, at Novant Health New Hanover Regional Medical Center at the age of 64.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter Lakecher McFadden; her sister Candus Brown, her brother, Handy McFadden, Jr. and two nieces Lauren Brown and Shatoya Mitchum.

She is survived by her son, Dedrick McFadden of Wilmington, NC, and her grandchildren: Derrick Jones, Derien McFadden, Ny'lah Womack, Shion McFadden all of Wilmington, NC; and Tavon McFadden of Raleigh, NC, her siblings and extended family, including Stanley (Virginia) McFadden of Kingstree, SC; Rodney McFadden of Sumter, SC; Derwin McFadden of Virginia; and Monisha Robinson of Charlotte, NC, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, uncles, aunts, special friends and loved ones.
