

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Annie K. Carter was born in Scooba, Mississippi to Fannie B. Neely on Friday, January 27, 1928. Annie was raised by her mother, Fannie and stepfather, Samuel Nave. Annie's family moved to different locations in the south looking to improve their standard of living. They eventually moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana as part of the Great Migration to the North where jobs and opportunities were plentiful. Once Annie reached adulthood, she visited Cincinnati, Ohio and decided to make it her home. While in Cincinnati, she worked numerous jobs in home care, nursing homes and Longview State Hospital.

She grew up in a church environment and joined the Universal Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Pastor James Morgan. She continued to serve the Lord at different churches as the years passed. She finally settled at the First Church of God on Fosdick Street.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Fannie Nave; stepfather, Sam Nave; sisters, Sarah Early and Ada Mitchell; brother, Matthew Nave and son, Vernon Carter.

Annie leaves behind a sister, Sophia Pinkston; a son, James Baylor; a daughter, Wanda Carter; three grandsons, Rico, Marwan and N'Gai; as well as four great granddaughters, Keyonna, Autumn, Mya and Courtney and a host of nephews and nieces.
