Daniel Bruce Hoffman

---

He spoke in smiles more than in sound, A quiet strength that wrapped us round. With steady hands and loving care,
he taught us love by being there. By
still blue waters,
line held tight,
He showed us
patience, day
and night - That waiting can be rich and deep, and
some best gifts are ours to keep. In time
well spent and love so true, he shaped our hearts the way he knew. A life of calm, of family, His lessons live eternally.
