

Acknowledgement

The family extends our sincerest appreciation to our extended family, friends, and church families, for all the acts of kindness during this bittersweet time. We cannot list all hearts mom touched, nurtured and became a pillar of strength for. We love you all and hope you will continue to remain an essential part of our family.

Love is patient and kind
Love is not jealous
or boastful.
It is not arrogant or rude.
Love does not insist on its own way.
It is not irritable or resentful.
It does not rejoice at wrong
But rejoices in the right.
Love bears all things,
believes all things,
endures all things.

THE LIFE Celebrating & LEGACY

Anthony Terrell Adams Sr., 53, was a loving father, beloved son, brother, uncle, grandfather, and dear friend. He was born on June 13, 1971, in St. Louis, MO, to Bennie Adams Jr. and Caroline M. Adams. He transitioned to eternal rest on Wednesday, March 12, 2025.

Anthony accepted The Lord as a child and was a member of Palestine Missionary Baptist Church, having been baptized in his faith. He was raised in Kansas City, MO, and graduated from Central High School. A man of many trades, he was always eager to learn and master new skills. In his last profession, he excelled as a product inspector at Salvajor.

Anthony's heart belonged to his family and friends. His warmth, unwavering love, and dedication left an everlasting impact on everyone he met. At the age of 29, Anthony was blessed with his first and only son, Anthony Adams Jr., with Trena Hightower. During his time with Trena, he gained three bonus children: Markelia, Trinea, and Stephon. He later married Sarah Adams and was gifted two stepchildren, Damon and Davoe, whom he also loved as his own.

As a child, Anthony loved playing football, baseball, and boxing, as well as spending quality time with his brothers. He carried that same energy into adulthood, becoming known as a protector—a man full of love and kindness. His favorite saying, "Everybody go night-night!!" was always spoken with humor and affection, bringing laughter to those around him. He is preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents and his brother, Marlon Goodman.

Anthony's life will be cherished by his son, Anthony Adams Jr. (Taiesha Chairs), and his grandson, Amiri'z Adams. He is also survived by his loving parents, Bennie Adams Jr. and Caroline Adams (Terry); his siblings, Lorenzo Adams (Keetra Adams) and Brandon Mayberry; his nieces and nephews, Shakayla, A'yani, Lakiyah, Kelon, Brandon Jr., and Lorenzo II; his great-nephews, Naseir and Sir'Meir; and one more bonus child he loved, Darnell Sr.
