My Husband ~ My Love

I loved you because you were gentle, caring, compassionate and understanding.

I delighted in your sense of humor ~ you made us all laugh.

I could take your hand and draw strength for my future.

You judged me worthy. You held my hand with pride.

*You accepted me unconditionally, knowing my flaws,
and then called me beautiful.*

*This guy never spoke bad about anyone ~ or anything,
Because it was either not needed or was forgivable.*

I am so blessed to have been your wife and eternal companion!

Without you I am empty. Alone I am lost.

Thank you for loving me!

Thank you for being my best friend!

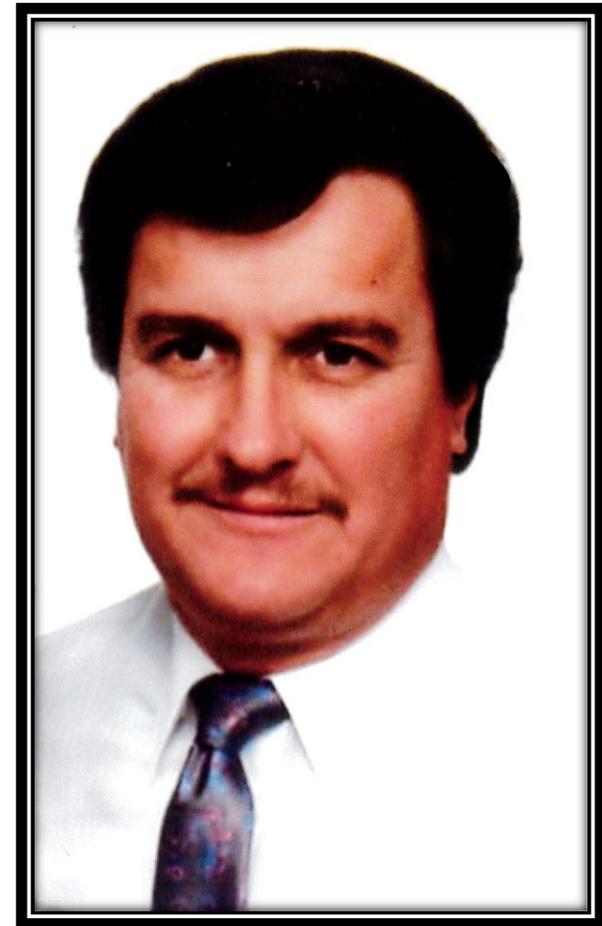

~ Karen Sue Nicks
