

In Loving Memory

She walked with faith and fire inside,
A praying heart, a fearless stride.
From church pews to casino lights,
She lived her truth both days and nights.
A Bengals fan through joy and pain,
Cincinnati ran through her veins.
Fierce with her words, she spoke her mind
What she said went, no pause, no rewind.
A Scorpio soul, strong and bold,
Loyal, protective, worth more than gold.
She loved hard, stood her ground,
Left her mark on sacred ground.
Though heaven gained a powerful flame,
We speak with love and say her name.
Gone from sight, but never apart
Forever living in our hearts.

Obituary

Jeanella Harvey was born on October 24, 1959, to Ola Jean and Harold Williams Sr.

Jeanella grew up in Winton Terrace and attended Cincinnati Public Schools, graduating from Hughes High School. Known for her vibrant spirit and love of life, she cherished time spent with friends and family. She gave her life to Christ and was baptized as a child.

In 1993, Jeanella married the love of her life, Vernon Harvey. Together, they devoted themselves to raising their three beautiful granddaughters: Tiesha, Shannon, and Jamaica. Jeanella formed an especially close bond with Shannon, and they shared countless precious moments attending church services, cheering on the Cincinnati Bengals with enthusiastic "Who-Dey" chants, enjoying casino outings where Jeanella held elite member status, and simply treasuring each other's company.

A fun-loving woman with many passions, Jeanella enjoyed bowling, playing cards, and spending time at the motorcycle club with friends. Her warmth, laughter, and zest for life touched everyone who knew her.

Jeanella has joined her parents in heaven, Ola Jean and Harold Williams Sr., her husband, Vernon Harvey, and her sister, Tara Williams.

Jeanella leaves behind: her son Orlando Sattiewhite Sr., daughter, Nina Teasley (Sonny); and her grandchildren Tiesha Williams, Shannon Williams, Jamaica Breckenridge, Yona McClain, Armani Williams, Sr., Tymela Early, Orlando Jr., Jacory Dillard, Ka'wye Sattiewhite, Kai'ree Sattiewhite, Tajari Melinda-Jean Sattiewhite; her great-grandchildren Braylen Miller, Zoey Miller, Legacy Williams, Julian Williams, Jace Williams, Aubrey McClain, Delvin Willis, Jr., Aveon Williams, Armani Jr.; her siblings, Harold Jr., Donna (George), Andrea, Yolanda (Daniel), Phyllis, and Amanda; her best friend since 1984, Billie Evans (Michael); and Goddaughter India Williams.
