Remembering Harold

Harold Franklin Ford, Jr., 71, of Coatesville, PA, passed away January 11, 2022. Born in Coatesville, he was the son of the late Harold and Gertrude (London) Ford.

Harold attended the Coatesville area public schools and was a 1968 graduate of CASH. He was a talented athlete who excelled in track and basketball. He was energetic and was a great shooter. He received a full scholarship to Millersville University where he was a starter on the football team.

Harold majored in Library Science. He later became a certified drug and alcohol recovery specialist in the state correctional institute. Harold enjoyed helping those who needed legal assistance. He helped many get released or get their time shortened.

Harold is survived by a son, Harold Ford, III "Fordee"; brother, Carl London (Judith) of Coatesville, Ronald Ford of Philadelphia; sister, Betty Webb of Coatesville; grandchildren: Nagé Ford, Maloni Ford, Harold Ford, IV "Howie", Jamir Ford; former wife, Renee Boggs and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Mona Lisa Ford, Patricia Marie Ford, and brother-in-law, Vernon Webb.

*The loss of a someone is a heavy burden to bear.
He's a source of quiet strength that is so missed when he's not there.
Take comfort he's in Heaven, and looking down at you.
He'll be there through the coming years, Watching over and guiding you.
He's your very own guardian angel, And he'll be with you to the end,
When you meet again in Heaven, And your broken heart will finally mend.
There are so many questions That I need answers to,
But now that you're gone There's no way to ask you.
But there are still photos To remember you by,
Each time I look at them, I still want to cry.
They say grief is easier to bear as time goes by,
But the doesn't stop me from wondering why?
Why my dear, sweet dad Was taken so soon,
When he was my guiding star, My sun and my moon.
There are no answers To a question like this,
So I'll cherish your memory, And mourn the years we'll miss.
The loss of a father Is a heavy burden to bear.
He's a source of quiet strength That is so missed when he's not there.
Take comfort he's in Heaven, And looking down at you.
He'll be there through the coming years, Watching over and guiding you.
He's your very own guardian angel, And he'll be with you to the end,
When you meet again in Heaven,
And your broken heart will finally mend.*
