Her Life's Journey

MRS. MINNIE MAE "HOODIE" WATSON JACKSON was born on February 2, 1952, in Terrell County, Georgia. She was welcomed to this world by her parents, the late Arthur and Jessie Watson.

Reared in a Christian home, Minnie began serving the Lord at an early age. She was a faithful lifelong member of Crawford Grove Missionary Baptist Church until her demise.

Minnie received her formal education at George Washington Carver High School. She was a proud member of the graduating class of 1970.

Deacon Andrew Jackson took Minnie Mae Watson hand in marriage on April 23, 1993; they enjoyed 32 years together. To this union, six children were added.

For 27 years of her life, Minnie worked tirelessly to care for others as she worked for Four County Health and Rehabilitation in Richland, Georgia. In addition to her professional career, Minnie was known as "Cake Lady" throughout her community and Southwest Georgia for her baking skills, notably her red velvet.

On Sunday, June 22, 2025, Minnie peacefully exchanged mortal for immortality. She was preceded in death by her grandson, Anthony Rashaud Willimas, Jr.

Precious memories will remain with her loved ones: husband, Deacon Andrew Jackson; children, Taquita Watson, Kyla Watson, Anthony Williams, Sr., Andrew Jackson (Vita), Brandie Sanders (Corey), and Brandon Jackson; grandchildren, Tequi'Min, Quand'yc, Keyan, Kylan, Ava, Autumn, Addilyn, Trinity, Brayden, Zykeira, Courtney, Corey, Jr., Cam, Camrin, Carmin, Camille, Carson, and Conner; great-grandchildren, A'lisia, and Ashten, Jr.; siblings, Johnnie Goosby, Lujean Salter (Howard), Martha Mitchell (Deacon Sim), and Homer Watson; a devoted niece, Beatrice Alston; three brothers-in-law, Freddy Jackson, David Jackson, and Robert Jackson; godson, Christopher Benton; a special friend, Etheridge "Red" Reliford; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other family, and friends.
